Ching Prepares For Mediation In Coal Strike

Government Mediation Conference Is Reported Being Set Up Today

PRESIDENT DELAYS ANY DRASTIC MOVE (BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Federal Mediation Chief Cyrus Ching scheduled a conference today with John L. Lewis as the union leader proposed coal strike peace talks in Chicago tomorrow with Illinois and Indiana operators.

Ching arranged to meet the United Mine Workers president late this afternoon after the mediation director returns to Washington from an overnight trip to New York.

By PHILLIPS J. PECK (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—A government mediation conference is being set up today in the seven-week coal strike and the mine operators are expected to be called in first for separate talks.

Federal Mediation Director Cyrus S. Ching may issue the summons to the producers late today or tomorrow.

Top administration officials denied published reports that President Truman is ready to crack down on the 375,000 striking miners with an 80-day injunction under the Taft-Hartley law.

They said Mr. Truman is counting on the coal wage dispute being settled through collective bargaining just as in steel, where Bethlehem and the CIO steelworkers union succeeded in working out an agreement after a 31-day strike.

PA NEWS OBSERVES

First light snow of the season was in evidence here early this morning.

PA News is in receipt of a message from Claude H. Smith, regional director for the American Meteorological Society, in reference to the brilliant lights witnessed in the sky here on October 26. He desires to get in touch with eye-witnesses in order that he might write a story about the phenomenon. He may be addressed at R. D. 3, Waterloo, N. Y.

Residents of Butler county evidently received more snow than the Lawrence county area this morning. Cars coming in from that section around 6 a. m. today were covered with quite a blanket of snow. It was the first snow seen here this season.

Local church groups are already looking ahead to the Christmas season. Practices have started for cantatas, children are receiving parts for Christmas recitations and committees are already investigating Christmas candies for treats.

Residents of Crawford avenue between County Line and Main streets are hoping that the city fathers will look favorably on them in regard to resurfacing their street next spring. The surfacing of the street is in a poor condition and seemingly getting worse. Repair work there has been needed for quite a long time, residents say.

Workmen of the highway department are engaged in numerous sections of the county shaping up the berms on the roads which were constructed during the past year.

Women's Division Nears Chest Goal

New Castle ladies are leading the way in the 1949 Community Chest campaign.

In a fund raising drive designed to accumulate $127,350 for the benefit of 13 welfare agencies, the Women's division has achieved 89.3 per cent of a quota of $9,500. This represents donations of $8,484.

The total of all divisions, as reported at Thursday's report meeting, is $92,138 or 73 per cent of the goal.

Mrs. James W. Moorehead and Mrs. Ethel Rentz Ferver are co-chairwomen of the women's division. Their progress and good organization form a unique pattern for all other groups in the way of progress.

Truman Opens 1950 Campaign

Speaks At Gathering In St. Paul On Thursday Night

By ROBERT G. NIXON (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

EN ROUTE WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN, Nov. 4.—President Truman was en route to Washington today from the rich farming area of the upper Midwest where he hit "reactionaries," "vested interests" and "stand-patters" with the first volley of the 1950 campaign.

Mr. Truman brushed aside precedent last night in St. Paul and opened the next political campaign with a slashing attack and a forecast of new triumphs for Fair Deal Democrats.

Urges Support
The chief executive declared in a speech broadcast coast-to-coast that the nation's voters would speak out "even more clearly" next year in favor of his liberal program than they did at the polls 12 months ago.

C.I.O. Strategy May Be Changed At Convention

Delay In Expulsion Of Left-Wingers From Executive Board

OFFICERS' ELECTION SET FOR AFTERNOON

By BOB VINCENT (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

CLEVELAND, Nov. 4.—Election of officers was postponed until this afternoon's session by the 11th annual CIO convention lending credence to reports that left-wingers may be permitted on the executive board.

The rash of court actions resulting from the convention's ouster of the UE and subsequent chartering of a new UE was believed to have altered top CIO strategy, which originally called for outright expulsion of any left-wingers on the 51-man board.

To Hear Charges

The executive board now is expected to appoint a special committee to hear charges against the remaining 10 leftist unions and then report back to the board for final action.

Permitting the left-wingers on the board also will enable CIO President Philip Murray and other right-wingers to clean their own house and avoid charges of steamroller tactics.

The convention still has to act on 33 resolutions before the election of officers and board members. Murray is a virtual certainty to be re-elected to the post he has held since 1940.

The CIO kicked out two of the left-wing groups earlier this week—the Electrical Workers, the third largest in the parent body, and the Farm Equipment Workers, already merged with the UE in defiance of executive board orders.

Disciplinary action of some sort will be taken against some of the other 10 unions at Saturday's session of the executive board. Punishment of lesser offenders may be postponed until some later date, however.

Last Missing Body In Plane Crash Is Found

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—The last missing body in the airplane disaster which killed 55 persons Tuesday was recovered today, nearly 72 hours after the mid-air collision of a P-38 fighter plane and an Eastern Airlines DC-4.

The remains of William Smyth, 39, of Roslyn Estates, Long Island, were taken from the Potomac river near the National airport where the two planes fell.

Meanwhile, new hope was held for recovery of Eric Rios Bridoux, the P-38 pilot and the sole survivor of the tragedy.

Bridoux, who is director general of Bolivian civil aviation, suffered a relapse when "someone told him that everyone aboard the Eastern Airlines DC-4 with which he collided Tuesday was killed."

Questioning of the pilot was postponed when he contracted pneumonia.

Check For $1,000 For New Castle Hospital

Mrs. William L. Strawbridge receives a check of $1,000 from Alfonso Scarazzo for the Women's Board of the New Castle Hospital. Looking on are (left to right) Mrs. Jessie Stenger, Anthony Marino, and Sister Mary John.

Woman's board of the New Castle hospital was presented with a $1,000 check, Thursday afternoon from three local businessmen, who have the interest of the New Castle hospital at heart.

These men, Al Scarazzo, Carm Sacco and Tony Marino, worked diligently in making the arrangements for a local train to carry residents to Baltimore, Md., attending the Notre Dame and Navy football game.

The game trip was sponsored by the Woman's Board of the New Castle hospital and proceeds from this project amounted to $1,000.

President, Mrs. William Strawbridge expressed the gratitude of the entire board for the remarkable management of the trip. "We are grateful that these businessmen have a great interest in the hospital," Mrs. Strawbridge said.

The proceeds of the game will be contributed towards the hospital pledge of the Woman's board, which is $15,000.

December 1 is the date for the next Woman's Board meeting.

Vishinsky To Delay Speech

Will Not Make U. N. 'Peace Pact' Speech Until Confering With Acheson

By PIERRE J. HUSS (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky reportedly has decided to postpone his "peace pact" speech in the United Nations until after his scheduled conference with Secretary of State Acheson.

In requesting such a private meeting, Vishinsky is understood to have in mind an across-the-board review of issues on which the Soviet Union and the three western powers have split far apart.

It is believed at Lake Success that Vishinsky particularly will press upon Acheson the need for an early meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers to consider a peace treaty for Germany.

Scant Hope Held For Recovery Of Bolivian Pilot

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Scant hope is held today for the recovery of a P-38 pilot who is the sole survivor of a mid-air collision which killed 55 persons. Officials at the Alexandria (Va.) hospital said the condition of the pilot, Eric Rios Bridoux, director general of Bolivian Civil Aviation, is "poor."

A hospital spokesman said Rios suffered a relapse when "someone told him that everyone aboard the Eastern Airlines DC-4 with which he collided Tuesday was killed."

Questioning of the pilot was postponed when he contracted pneumonia.

Proclamation

I, John F. Haven, Mayor of the City of New Castle, Pennsylvania do hereby proclaim and set aside Saturday, November 5th, 1949, as "POPPY DAY". The sale of these poppies will be under the direction of the Auxiliary of the American Legion, Perry S. Gaston Post No. 345.

The citizens of our city are asked to observe this day by wearing a memorial poppy in honor of those who gave their lives in the World Wars I and II.

Whereas, the best young men of our nation offered their lives in the Nation's defense, and Whereas, among those young men and women were many from New Castle who served gallantly and sacrificed greatly in the conflict that Our Country might be secure as the land of justice, and Liberty.

Further, I suggest that you give generously toward the sale of these poppies as the proceeds go to the welfare work of the disabled veterans and the dependent families of veterans.

Voters To Ballot On State Bonus Tuesday

By JOHN PAGET (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 4.—Estimates of the turnout at the polls in Tuesday's election today range between 30 and 50 per cent of the approximately 4,934,000 registered voters.

Election interest is not as keen as in other off-years despite the fact that the electorate must consider three proposed amendments to the state's 66-year-old constitution including a soldier bonus program carrying a $500,000,000 tax.

Only statewide office at stake is a $21,000-a-year judgeship on the state superior court.

Ten Airmen Believed Dead In Crash Of B-29

Superfortress Plunges Into Sea Off Bermuda—Three Men Saved

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Ten U. S. airmen were presumed killed today in the flaming crash of a B-29 Superfortress which plunged into the sea and exploded off Bermuda last night. Three men were saved.

The blast was heard for several miles, and thousands of gallons of burning aviation gasoline shot upwards for more than 100 feet and flamed for 90 minutes.

Four men managed to escape the crashed plane. Three were picked up by two Bermudians who pulled them aboard a small rowboat. One of the airmen died of burns before he could be taken to a hospital. A fourth man was rescued by an air force crash boat.

Officials said that the nine airmen still missing are presumed dead. But navy and air force boats still scoured the crash scene.

The huge four-engine bomber attacked to the 373rd Weather Reconnaissance at Kindley Field near Hamilton, hit the water 300 yards offshore as it came in for a landing at Kindley Field.

The Superfort had taken off on a routine weather mission and turned back after radioing that it was having mechanical trouble.

Big Three Will Confer In Paris During Next Week

Secretary Of State Acheson Receives Urgent Message To Attend Meeting

MANY PROBLEMS TO BE DISCUSSED

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Setting of a formal date for a meeting of U. S., British and French foreign ministers today was the only factor delaying a conference in Paris to discuss major world problems.

State department spokesman Michael McDermott told a news conference in Paris that the only problem still to be determined is the question of finding a date suitable to Secretary of State Acheson, British Foreign Secretary Bevan and French Foreign Minister Schuman.

By JOHN A. REICHMANN (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The critical state of world economic and political problems forced Secretary of State Acheson today to accept an invitation to a big three meeting in Paris next week.

The fact that British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman had invited Acheson to Paris was revealed by London and the Quai d'Orsay. The State Department reluctantly confirmed existence of the invitations several hours later.

Acheson To Accept
No doubt exists that Acheson will accept. Cables were exchanged throughout last night on the problems which might come "up for discussion."

There are known to include all matters discussed by Acheson, Bevin and Schuman during their world political talks in Washington early in September. To these will be added other questions on European integration and economic recovery which have come to the fore in recent weeks.

Acheson is known to be reluctant to make a foreign journey at this time. The fact that he has agreed to do so was taken to indicate the seriousness with which he views the impending world events in 1950.

Likely Questions

Questions believed certain to be on the program for discussion are: 1. Embracing of the west German government in the council of Europe, whose member ministers will be meeting in Paris coincidentally with Acheson's visit. 2. Lightening of the burden on Germany of the dismantling of plants for reparations purposes. (Continued on Page Two)

Ford Cancels Former Orders For Suspension

DETROIT, Nov. 4.—(INS)—The Ford Motor company today cancelled plans to suspend virtually all manufacturing operations in mid-November, and announced the steel shortage will cause "only slightly reduced schedules."

Executive Vice-president E. R. Breech said Lincoln production will cease Nov. 11, to be resumed sometime in December, but Ford and Mercury departments will remain open indefinitely.

Six Are Jailed After Harlem 'Victory' Parade

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Six persons were in jail today after a Harlem "victory" parade celebrating the release on bail of one of the 11 convicted Communists flared into a two-hour disorder and near-riot last night.

At least seven persons, including six policemen, were injured. The clash started when police broke up—in the face of flying bottles and rocks—a tumultuous outburst by several thousand persons cheering Negro City Councilman Benjamin J. Davis Jr., one of the freed Communists.

The melee started when police flung three radio cars across busy Lenox avenue to bar marchers from following Davis and other speakers from one rally to another.

Ask Explanation For Jailing Of Embassy Clerk

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Undersecretary of State Webb called Czech Ambassador Vladimír Outrata to his office today to request an explanation of Czechoslovakia's action in jailing Samuel Meryn, an U. S. Embassy clerk in Prague.

The United States protested against Meryn's detention last Saturday. The Czech foreign office had indicated that a reply would be delivered in Washington last week.

When the reply failed to arrive, Webb called Outrata to his office for an explanation.

State Department spokesman Michael McDermott noted that the Communist-dominated Czech government has not indicated officially what charges are being made against Meryn although the government controlled press and radio have asserted that he was accused of espionage.

The parade will form on the south side with the head resting at Home street, from whence it will move up Mill street to South Crofton avenue, thence to East Washington street, west on Washington to the Diamond and up North Jefferson street to the Legion Home. The parade will move out promptly at 7 o'clock.

Any organizations in the city, fraternal or civic, wishing to participate are asked to contact Parade Marshal Barnes on or before November 7.

There will be four divisions in the parade, with the men in active military service, and the units of the 229th in division one, of which Thomas McCormick is marshal.

The second division will include VFW posts and auxiliaries and Post 528, American Legion, with John Stoner as parade marshal.

The third division will include the Catholic War Veterans and auxiliary, with Orlando Caiazza as marshal, while the fourth division will include all other units, with Herman Steinbrink as marshal.

Britain's Bevin and Foreign Minister Schumann of France apparently will not cancel out the conference on Monday with Vishinsky. On the contrary, the forthcoming three-power meeting in Paris gives added importance to the Acheson-Vishinsky talk, since the Secretary of State undoubtedly will report at length to Bevin and Schumann on the talks.

Vishinsky asked Acheson for an appointment some days ago and will meet him before playing host in Washington to the diplomatic corps at the annual Soviet celebration of "October Revolution" day.

efforts. It was conceded, however, that if this approach fails other methods will have to be employed.

President Truman said recently that he would not hesitate to use the Taft-Hartley law in either coal or steel if the country is confronted with a national emergency.

China is expected to follow the same procedure in the coal controversy that he used in steel, conferring separately with both sides, exploring their viewpoints and not attempting to arrange a joint session until there is some prospect for success.

Mine Workers President John L. Lewis has a meeting of the UMW's 200-man policy committee scheduled Monday in Chicago and probably will not be called to meet with Ching until after that session.

VOTERS TO BALLOT ON STATE BONUS TUESDAY

gheny County Pleas Court Judge Harry M. Montgomery, slated by Democrats.

Other Amendments

In addition to the bonus proposal, voters will be asked to approve or reject amendments to authorize absentee voting rights for hospitalized war veterans and to exempt municipal redevelopment agencies from local taxation for a maximum 25 years.

A majority of the electorate must cast affirmative ballots if the amendments are to be validated. The bonus amendment needs approval or the proposed payments will not be made. The constitutional debt limit is $1,000,000 and the approval of voters is needed to exceed the ceiling.

Should the bonus be approved, the commonwealth will proceed to sell bonds to raise the money necessary to pay ex-servicemen, or the next of kin of deceased soldiers, sums equal to $10 a month for domestic duty and $15 a month for overseas service.

Lawmakers have estimated that about $375,000,000 will be needed for payments while the rest will be used for debt service.

Payments would be limited to veterans who served between December 7, 1941 and September 2, 1945.

summer months. The berm work was left until last in order to throw the roads open to the public. Quite a bit of fill work is necessary in some spots to make the sides of the roads safe in case a car should accidentally get off the surface of the highway.

Business firms and residents along the route of the railroad tracks on the east side will welcome the addition of a diesel engine for shifting purposes there. The steam propelled engine used formerly poured out quit a bit of dirt and smoke on the area. The new engine, which does not pour out black smoke, is also much quieter in operation with the exception of its "fog" horn.

Sub-District Will Meet Monday Noon

New Castle Sub-district of the Methodist church will hold their regular meeting Monday at 12:15 p. m. in the First Methodist church. The service is to be featured by a fellowship dinner in the church which will preface the regular business session.

Rev. James A. Gaiser, sub-district president, will conduct the business session. Devotions will be directed by Rev. G. Edward Shaffer of the Greenwood Methodist church. Rev. Thomas Morris, district superintendent, will present several matters of importance.

Rev. Albert C. Howe, program chairman will have an important topic, "Visitation Evangelism." A discussion will take place following the topic.

Reynolds Is Ten Hours Behind In World Air Trip

MANILA, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Milton Reynolds arrived in Manila today, almost ten hours behind schedule in his global flight aimed at breaking the world's record for commercial airlines.

The Chicago millionaire's airliner landed at the Philippine capital at 6:10 a. m. (EST). His original schedule called for him to arrive at Manila at 8:30 p. m. (EST) yesterday.

Reynolds is out to break the record held by Col. Edward Egan who flew around the world on regular airlines in six days, five hours. The veteran aviation enthusiast had hoped to make the "round-the-world" trip in four days and 23 hours.

Sharon Torpedo Sank Jap Ship

SHAARON, Pa., Nov. 4.—(INS)—A torpedo donated by employees of Westinghouse's transformer division in Sharon sank a heavily loaded Jap freighter during the war.

The navy revealed today that the torpedo hit its target with the announcement that Westinghouse's Sharon employees will be presented the official navy record of the torpedo.

The official log gave this account of the encounter with the Japanese ship:

"Sighted smoke, which developed into a small ak, mfm, composite super-structure, cruiser stern, plumb bow, heavily-laden, identified as type 'C' Fox Tare Charlie. About 2,700 tons. Excluded standard submerged approach from land side.

"Fired three mk 18 torpedoes forward.

"One terrific hit at middle of the target by torpedo donated by employees of the Westinghouse factory at Sharon, Pa. . . . Target sank instantly. . . . Diving time 30 seconds."

SOCIETY & Clubs

WALMO GARDEN CLUB HEARS MRS. COSEL

Members of the Walmo Garden club held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Marshall Curran, of the Wilmington road, Thursday. Mrs. Theo Speck was co-hostess.

Mrs. Richard Marquis reported on the Garden Council meeting and announced that the Walmo club will be in charge of the meeting in December. Mrs. Lewis Heller, of Youngstown, will be guest speaker.

The club voted to make dish gardens for the veterans of DeShon hospital as their Christmas projects. This work will be carried out by a group headed by Mrs. Lyle Hughes.

A nominating committee with Mrs. Gerald Earle chairlady, Mrs. Sam Mooney and Mrs. Marshall Curran, announced the new officers for the coming year. The president is Mrs. W. C. Hileman; first vice president, Mrs. Richard Marquis; second vice president, Mrs. Robert Genkinger; recording secretary, Mrs. Fred Moser; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. J. Offutt; treasurer, Mrs. Leo Dover; member-at-large, Mrs. Kenneth Cotton; and parliamentarian, Mrs. Lyle Hughes.

The president appointed the following program committee: Mrs. Theo Speck, Mrs. Gerald Earle, Mrs. Marshall Curran and Mrs. A. H. Meller.

"1949 Looks to Thanksgiving" was the timely topic of the guest speaker, Mrs. William Cosel. She spoke of the origin of Thanksgiving in our country and the customs of different people. "Good health can be attained through the proper balance of foods. In order to be healthy and happy, our bodies must have foods that supply materials for energy and growth," Mrs. Cosel concluded with recipes and suggestions for Thanksgiving dinners.

On December 1 the club will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Daugherty, of Maitland Lane, with Mrs. Gerald Earle as associate hostess.

MARK ANNIVERSARY S.O.S. CLUB MEMBER

Members of the S. O. S. club were entertained on Wednesday evening, in the home of Mrs. Joseph Warner of Katherine street.

Crocheting was the diversion of the evening. The club token was captured by Mrs. Joseph Lagnese. A hanky shower was given Mrs. Lagnese, who has moved to Warren, Ohio.

Mrs. Lagnese' birthday anniversary was celebrated, and she received many gifts from the members.

The hostess served a delicious lunch, with Mrs. Leroy Stafford as aide. A lovely birthday cake graced the table.

Next meeting of the group, Wednesday, November 16, with Mrs. Andrew Liteinovich of 929 Clarence avenue.

WIMODAUSIS PLANS LUNCHEON EVENT

Wimodausis members will gather at the Cathedral on Wednesday, Nov. 9, for a 1 o'clock luncheon. Hostesses for the occasion will be Mrs. Earl Leslie, 413 Glenmore boulevard, and Mrs. Paul Berry, 1206 Delaware avenue.

There will be a board meeting at 12:30 o'clock and Mrs. Myron Olmstead will have charge of the program.

MR. AND MRS. E. CLARK HAVE ANNIVERSARY

November 3, 1949, will long be remembered by Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Clark and family of Chestnut street, the day marking their 35th wedding anniversary.

They started the day by attending holy mass with their family in St. Mary's church at 8:30 a. m., which was celebrated in their honor.

In the afternoon a reception was held in their home for the family, friends and neighbors.

A dinner for the immediate family will be held Sunday afternoon, November 6, at a tearoom in New Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark were married 35 years ago in St. John's Catholic church in Scottsdale, Pa., with the late Rev. Fr. M. A. Lambing officiating.

Miss Anna Horne and John J. Clark of Scottsdale were their attendants.

Six children blessed this union: Mrs. Charles Garbett and Mrs. Victor Ross of New Castle, Jack of Youngstown, O., Robert, a student at John Carroll university, Cleveland, O.

A son died in infancy and Emmett Clark, Jr., was killed in action in the E.T.O. of World War II. There are also four grandchildren.

Y. M. L. CLUB PLANS FOR THEATER PARTY

On Wednesday evening, Mrs. Anthony Cotelesse of Pearson street was hostess to the members of the Y.M.L. club.

Cards were the diversions of the evening. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Joseph Cutini, Mrs. Anthony Peluso, and Mrs. Anthony Mitola. Mrs. Joseph DiMuccio captured the door prize.

A theater party is planned for November 7.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her mother Mrs. James Lavella.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Joseph DiMuccio of Lutton street on November 23.

Home Watchman

American Home Watchman will meet in the Malta hall Friday evening at 7:30 p.m.

A social period will follow the meeting.

TAU DELTA CLASS FILLS GIFT BOXES

Members of the Tau Delta Class of the Epworth Methodist church met Tuesday evening, November 1, in the church.

Miss Pillay Parker, president, presided. She appointed the following committee to have charge of the decorations for the "Old Timers" party to be held in the church on November 15: Miss Mildred Lusk, Miss Dorothy Depp, Mrs. Clair Roberts, Mrs. Ernest Raulerson and Mrs. Walter Gilmore.

The remainder of the evening was spent in preparing the Christmas boxes to be sent to the "shut-ins" of the church at Christmas.

A delicious lunch was served to the workers by Mrs. Will Druschell, Mrs. Ernest Raulerson and Miss Carrie Sanfilippo. During the lunch the new teacher, Mrs. Job Hares, and the new assistant teacher, Mrs. George Forrest, were introduced. A letter was read from Mrs. Charles Andrews, Detroit, Mich., former teacher of the class.

The next meeting will be the Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Humphrey Richards, 626 Raymond street, on December 6. There will be a gift exchange.

Six children blessed this union: Mrs. Charles Garbett and Mrs. Victor Ross of New Castle, Jack of Youngstown, O., Robert, a student at John Carroll university, Cleveland, O.

A son died in infancy and Emmett Clark, Jr., was killed in action in the E.T.O. of World War II. There are also four grandchildren.

TEMPLE SISTERHOOD WILL HAVE LUNCHEON

Monthly luncheon meeting of the Temple Israel Sisterhood will be held in the social rooms of Temple Israel on Tuesday, November 8, at 1 o'clock. Mrs. R. Rubenson will preside.

The regular meeting will be preceded by a board meeting at 12:45 in the same place.

Reports will be given by the delegates who attended the Pennsylvania State Federation of Sisterhoods at Erie recently.

BETA SIGMA PHI HAS CULTURAL PROGRAM

The Pennsylvania Epsilon Gamma chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, international social and cultural sorority, held its first November meeting in the green room of the Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Donald Copson, president, opened the regular business meeting, with the group repeating the opening ritual. The members responded to roll call with nursery rhymes. The ways and means committee introduced "Miss Beta Sigma Phi of 1949" and fashions of what the well dressed doll will wear this holiday season were discussed. Plans were drawn up for a Valentine ball to be held in February, at The Castleton.

Mrs. Howard C. Frew introduced Mrs. Paul Reed, who gave a very interesting cultural program on verse-making. Nonsense verses were composed by the group, with Mrs. Reginald Parker winning a prize for the most original. Ballads were read by Mrs. Alex Grinn, Mrs. George Getty, Miss Delores Montgomery, Mrs. Reginald Parker, Mrs. Robert Fellen and Mrs. John Panella. The group then composed an original ballad, using the founding of the local chapter of Beta as the theme. Mrs. Howard C. Frew and Mrs. Paul Reed read several types of lyric.

An informal lunch was served, with Miss Delores Montgomery and Mrs. Reginald Parker acting as hostesses.

Tempus Fugit Club

Members of the Tempus Fugit club enjoyed a theater party on Thursday evening. Later in the evening a delightful dinner was held at a local restaurant.

On November 17, the group will meet at the home of Mrs. Theresa Nocera of Croton avenue.

Fidelity Companions

Mrs. Carmen Picarro, of DuShane street, was a pleasant hostess Thursday evening, when the Fidelity Companion club met in her home.

Tables of 500 were in play, high score prizes going to Mrs. Marion DeAugustine and Mrs. Angelo Filigenzi. Later the hostess served dainty refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Michael Phillips. Lovely fall flowers centered the table. On November 17, the meeting will be with Mrs. Michael Phillips DuShane street.

MRS. REVA D. GORMLEY G. WARD WHITTAKER DANIEL B. WOOLCOCK ATTY. WILLIAM D. COBAU

These able men and women are the Republican candidates for the office of School Director. Mrs. Gormley, Mr. Woolcock and Mr. Whittaker are candidates for the full six year terms, Mr. Cobau is the candidate for the unexpired term of two years, caused by the resignation of C. Leroy Shira, for health reasons.

Your school board is the most important money handling body in the city or county. The budget approximates a million and a quarter dollars. Your school board is responsible for the well being of the school system, for the selection of capable instructors, for the education of your children.

No person without a genuine regard for education and the welfare of our boys and girls should seek election as a school director. No person without an ability to spend public money intelligently should seek to be a school director. It is a job that requires ability, judgment, a sympathetic understanding of educational problems and a fine regard for getting a dollar's worth for a dollar should seek election as a school director.

The Republican party is proud of its list of school director candidates. Reva D. (Mrs. Harry L.) Gormley is a business woman who daily has to make decisions in which the success of the business is involved. She is a former school teacher and has been active in civic work in New Castle for many years.

Daniel B. Woolcock is an engineer by profession. He has served many years as a school director and his engineering ability is invaluable to the school system in the matter of building or maintenance.

G. Ward Whittaker is an industrialist, accustomed to dealing with financial matters, accustomed to getting things done. His judgment in such matters as budget making will be valuable.

William D. Cobau is an attorney, accustomed to analyzing problems before taking action. He has served briefly in the unexpired term but in his service he has shown skill in dealing with school board problems.

Individually and collectively these candidates are the type of citizens one would expect to find upon a well operated school board. A business woman, an engineer, an industrialist and an attorney. Can you think of a better combination?

If elected on November 8 they will serve you well in a vitally important post.

You can vote for all four of them. We ask you to do so.

Roger W. Rowland, Chairman,
Lawrence County Republican Committee.

OUT GO THE COMMIES

The action of Phil Murray and the CIO in ousting the reportedly communist controlled United Electrical Workers union from the parent organization is one that deserves the commendation of all.

Too long have the devotees of communism been in power in labor unions of this country. Walter Reuther cleaned house in the United Auto Workers and action in the national CIO has been threatened for some time.

Now it has happened and none too soon. There is no room for Communists in the government forces, local state or national and there is no room in organized labor for them. Perhaps the sentence could be shortened by saying there is no room for them.

One of the glaring examples of left wing leadership in organized labor is Harry Bridges, who should have been deported years ago. Fact is he was to have been deported but only the intervention of some national figures who should have known better kept him here. Now he is a United States citizen, but in name only.

The utter stupidity of labor leaders who follow the Communist line cannot be understood. If Communism ever came into power in this nation, labor unions would be one of the first things to be liquidated. Say second, for the free American press would be liquidated the day the Commies took over.

The work of the CIO at the Cleveland convention was a good piece of business. Now it should go on down the line and clean out the last vestige of communism wherever it is found.

INDEX TURNS UP

The index curve did not show a sharp decline when living costs started falling in September, 1948. Food prices went down noticeably but prices of other consumer goods, holding firm or yielding only a little ground, kept the line on the chart from dipping steeply. Nevertheless, the change in direction was regarded as significant.

Living costs had begun to rise in the period before the outbreak of World War II. They had kept on rising during that decade. A downturn, if confirmed, would necessarily signal a fundamental change in the economic climate. The confirmation came, and so did the readjustment the economy has been undergoing for the greater part of the year.

Now it is being asked whether another reversal has begun. Between mid-August and mid-September, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reports, living costs rose one-half of one per cent. That was the largest monthly gain of the year. It could mean that the nation is now headed away from the mild deflation it has experienced since the fall of 1948.

Let it be said at once, though, that the Bureau of Agricultural Economics would not go quite that far. In a forecast made public on the heels of the BLS report, it predicts a slight reduction in economic activity during 1950 and a relatively slow downward movement in prices. That is, it expects the recession to go somewhat further but at a reduced pace.

This prophecy actually takes an optimistic view. The year 1949 has been a big year, though somewhat less lush than 1948, and a 1950 on the same pattern would be nothing to complain about. Most persons would be satisfied with a prosperity marked by price movements pointing toward stability—assuming it is sound prosperity, not blown up by artificial means. That is a large assumption, however, and therefore any cheers can be reserved until later.

MOTHBALL FLEET

While it was known for several years that the Navy would be called upon to "economize," there is a surprise element in the announcement that it must lay up as many as 77 ships and slash its manpower by nearly 55,000 men. If a cut of such dimensions is actually necessary, then the Navy has indeed some ground for its complaint that it is presently the step-sister of the military establishment.

This order sheds illumination on the background of the explosive criticism which the Navy has leveled at the unification program and the consequent efforts of Secretary of Defense Johnson to effect savings at the expense of the Navy. Navy men would be less than human if they did not protest against what they regard as discrimination.

In connection with this decision to put so many ships in mothballs and so many men into other fields of endeavor, two hopes—both futile—are shared by the American people. They hope that this is not an attempt to visit reprisals on the Navy for its attitude toward "unification" as currently practiced, and that the Navy has done all that it needed to do to inform the public.

An intrepid American who penetrated ancient Tibet comes back with the usual report. That country would also like to negotiate a loan.

Political Jeremiahs who are sure the country is going to the dogs probably still have some savings in government bonds—just to be safe.

Now that women control 75 per cent of the wealth and 51 per cent of the vote, is it too soon to start a movement in behalf of men's rights?

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

British popularity on the continent of Europe, hard hit in the passage of the postwar years, seems destined for a new low water mark in modern times. Sir Stafford Cripps, the Labor government's hard-headed chancellor of the exchequer, has rejected the characteristic bluntness of a proposal by ECA Administrator Paul G. Hoffman that all nations of Europe institute an "integrated economy" for the good of the world.

He told Marshall plan representatives in Paris that the idea is a splendid one—for everybody except Great Britain.

Not For Great Britain

He said that elimination of tariffs and quotas is a capital plan—but not for Great Britain.

He said that free and flowing intra-European trade is just fine—but the Empire and the Commonwealth come first.

And so far as equalization of currencies is concerned—he had no need to remind his hearers that Britain valued the pound sterling without warning to anyone in advance.

Cripps tried to take the sting out of his refusal by emphasizing Britain's desire to cooperate. But Hoffman's original idea of all for one and one for all to make Western Europe's 270 million people happy, cooperative and prosperous vanished into thin air.

Cripps' attitude of Britain first, last and always reminded more than one commentator of the now classic London Times headline: "TERRIFIC CHANNEL STORM—EUROPEAN CONTINENT ISOLATED."

Defenders of traditional British mercantile policy—Conservatives, Liberals and Laborites alike—maintain that the country has been forced into an unfavorable position by the compelling nature of events and that it must pattern its own course or die.

Complicated Factors

Many of the complicated factors

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

WHEN CHILD'S DEPORTMENT IS BAD

Suppose that on your child's first report card there are statements indicating that he has ranked low in one or more traits of character and citizenship. There may be statements about his habits of work, how well or poorly he pays attention in the classroom or cooperates with the teacher and other children there. On it may be some such statements as these: "Daydreams." "Dawdles, doesn't finish his work." "Has poor habits of work." "Disturbs the other children in their work." "Doesn't get along well with other children on the playground."

As you read such statements you may be very much vexed and right away you may proceed to tell your child he must quit daydreaming and must always pay attention at school, that he must behave himself and never bother other children or disobey his teacher; that he must work hard and always finish his work on time and try to get on well with other children on the playground; that you don't want to get any more reports like this. After you have got all this off your chest you probably feel quite important and assume that these commands of yours should settle all such matters permanently.

Won't Commit Follies

But if you will only use a bit of sense, you won't commit such follies as the foregoing. You will know very well that you can't hope to change your child's ways at school by such procedure. You will know that all these items of character and behavior at school lead back to earlier years and had been growing for a long, long while and that, therefore, they can't be changed quickly or merely by your commands. My bulletin, "Parents Can Help Child Succeed at School" may be had in a stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th Street, New York, N. Y.)

Yet we must not be too hard on you. You have tried eagerly to help your child in the directions he has been reported lagging. You also want to cooperate with the school. You probably supposed that the teacher expected you to do just as you have done so unwisely.

A Warning

If the teacher had been wiser she would not have sent you such a report without being pretty sure you would not do as you have done, or without writing a note warning you against such or having a conference with you to show you how to work on these traits and habits in the child day by day in scores of situations at home, over weeks and months with the hope of seeing them improve slowly and gradually. There are some great teachers who do show parents in simple ways how they can at home gradually improve the child's behavior and character traits at school.

Over the nation has spread a movement in recent years to place chief or sole emphasis in reports to parents on traits of character and citizenship. The objective is wonderful. But this new report card has not usually done what theorists supposed it would accomplish.

Hard as it might be for a teacher to show the parent how to help the child who lags in reading, spelling or arithmetic it is much more difficult for this teacher to show the parent how at home to improve the child's concentration, industry, cooperation and other character and citizenship traits at school. Yet the newer type of report card sets for the teacher this hard but worthy responsibility. Parents who believe they can also help the child improve at school in book learning might find some aid in my home helps bulletins on reading, spelling and arithmetic (to be had in a stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th Street, N. Y.).

responsible are difficult for the Continental European to understand.

He sees Britain striving to enrich her gold and dollar reserves by building up a huge tourist trade. But when an Englishman visits France, for example, he can take with him only the equivalent of $100—a sum of money that can disappear along with the cognac glasses after a supper for four at Maxim's.

He sees the United States pouring gigantic sums of money into Britain, while an Englishman going to New York or Palm Beach on pleasure is forbidden to take any money at all and a businessman is limited to $28.60 a day for all his expenditures.

Over and above such financial aspects, which make the continental believe that England is not playing exactly fair, there are other angles, some of them imaginary and some of them propagandistic.

Many Italians, for example, feel that Britain is wilfully blocking a solution of their colonial problem in Africa for purely selfish reasons.

Many French and Belgians do not feel that the "miracle of Dunkirk" was the glorious episode that has been pictured and a legend persists that the British Expeditionary force was concerned chiefly with saving its own skin.

Many have some resentment over Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery's insistence that command headquarters of the Western European Defense Union be established in Luxembourg and at Versailles—regarded as a gratuitous reminder that any new war must be fought on already badly-ravaged soil.

And they sometimes look askance at the Lion's grip that London still maintains on imperial trade routes all over the world despite political concessions such as the granting of dominion status for India and Burma.

It is amply clear from Cripps' remarks, however, that Britain is not going to change under criticism.

Her policy is "Export or die" and she is not going to raise her import quotas for anyone. The British people may be hungry and the French may have a bumper production of cheese—yet slim rations are certain to continue. British spokesmen consider that criticism is unjustified and that Britain's wartime sacrifices more than recompense for any commercial hardships inflicted on neighboring countries. They admit that present conditions are not overly conducive to all-out cooperation but confess quite candidly there is nothing they can or will do about it.

MOTHER COUNSEL

Dear daughter, hark to what I say:
"To catch a man you run away. He must believe who comes to woo. That he is running after you. A man to marriage must be led, But do not get too far ahead."

By neither look or sigh betray That you're the trapper; he the prey.
Man is the creature maidens hunt And catch by keeping well in front. For love will cool and ardor dim If they start running after him.

Of course, you must look back to see How far away, how close he be. Stay just in sight; depend upon Your lovely charms to lure him on. Remember, when the case begins Man likes to think 'tis he who wins."

Folks Of Fame

1.—New York City was the birthplace of Ben Bernie. He started in several motion pictures early in his career, then became a well known name in radio, conducting an orchestra. He teamed with Phil Baker for several years, and once toured in hotel engagements with the French film star, Maurice Chevalier. His name band was very popular until the time of his death, Oct. 20, 1943. He called himself "The Old Maestro."

2.—A bankruptcy in the business in which he was associated left Washington Irving without financial resources, so he decided to write for a living. He became one of America's greatest early writers. He was born in New York City, April 3, 1793. He and his brother and another man wrote some humorous sketches called Salmagundi Papers, which were successful. His Knickerbocker History of New York was a parody of history. It made his reputation. Rip Van Winkle is one of his best known tales. The Alhambra and his Sketch Book are others.

JUST FOR US

Why do we keep on complaining?
Why do we pick on our weakness?
Why not forget the annoying
And just look for some things to bless?

Our country gives us liberty
And the power of expression;
The earth gives us changing beauty
Beyond all imagination . . .

Have we no objective to reach?
Written upon the simple things
Are miracles performed to teach—
Can we find no value that rings?

We complain about this and that;
Our source of light casts a shadow
Before us, but fretting falls flat
When we interpret nature's glow—
For each touch of the earth's color
Is a gift free and glorious.
And petty complaining is war
Dictated by self—just for us!

Conjecture On Eastern Germany

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—From this farthest outpost you can look a long way to the east. Conquest of the east has long been the goal of both the Prussian and the Russian, and the suspicion is growing here that the two totalitarian forces may be secretly uniting for domination of the great Eurasian heartland.

It is, as yet, only conjecture. But the possibilities inherent in the Union of Russian resources, including Russian manpower, and German efficiency and technology each with its own system of ruthless and total controls, is appalling. In the immediate present is Premier Stalin's bid to the German people on the basis of unlimited nationalism. Nazis in the eastern zone not only have been given full rights but have been put into positions of power in the new government created by the Russians. One example is Georg Dertinger, foreign minister in the new setup, who helped to build fascism in Germany.

In the recent past the Soviet Union formed the Free Germany Committee around Field Marshal Von Paulus and other high officers captured at Stalingrad. They were used for propaganda appeals to the German people during the war and rumor has linked them to the formation of a new German army in the eastern zone.

But back of this is earlier history of collaboration between the Soviet Union and Germany. After World War I it was Junker officers who helped to direct the formation of the Russian army. Collaboration Essential. It was always the concept of one of the most powerful figures in the revival of German might—General Von Seeckt—that collaboration with the Russians was essential. As Von Seeckt argued on every possible occasion, above all for the development of the great industrial complex in China. Von Seeckt was largely responsible for sending a military mission, headed by General Von Falkenhayn, to help train Chiang Kai-Shek's army. "Give me one hundred thousand German civil servants and one hundred thousand officers and men and I will show how to organize China," Von Seeckt often said.

Today there are signs that new collaboration may be developing. Some leaders in the Free German Committee have come back to lead extremist parties in western Germany. A conspicuous example is General Vincenz Mueller, head of the Nazi-like National Democratic Union. Others have gone to China where along with Russian observers they are attached to headquarters of Communist military leaders. According to one source, Von Paulus himself is in Peiping, although another report has it that he has been relegated to comparative obscurity in Russia because he did not fulfill the expectations of Soviet leaders. Back of all this speculation is the solid fact that the owners and managers of German industry want to find an outlet for their products and their skills in eastern Europe and Asia.

There are the same owners and managers who helped to build up Hitler. They are believed to be

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan
(By International News Service)

None can seem to understand how the British government came to sink $100,000,000 in a peanut-raising project. . . . It sounds more like something we would do.

Come to think of it . . . we probably did!

Older persons can remember when a $100,000,000 government loss would be described as something more than failure of a vision. . . . It might even have been called "a horrible nightmare beyond understanding."

But there's nothing wrong with their economy or ours that higher taxes can't perpetuate.

I see they're trying to get a fellow in Kansas City who deducted $600 for clothes worn to Harry's inauguration. . . . It sounds like a lot of money but he may have figured on wearing them to three more.

They Say

WASHINGTON—Defense Secretary Louis Johnson: "The practical mind must steer a course between the arch-conservative die-hard, rooted in the past, and the dreamer whose vision, though vital is so often far in front of reality."

PARIS—Marshall Plan Administrator Paul G. Hoffman: "There is no magic in resolutions—the magic lies only in action."

NEW YORK—David L. Sarnoff, chairman of the board of the Radio Corporation of America: "Given unbacked opportunity in an atmosphere of freedom, science can continue its conquests of the physical world, remove the anxieties of sustenance and shelter, it can dispel our fears and make the atomic age the age of peace and prosperity."

They Came For Dinner

(By Holmes Alexander)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 4.—Farm legislation, like other country visitors, often enters through the back door—but this bucolic custom is likely to fool the general public in judging the farm record of the 81st Congress. The big crop-subsidy bill did go up and ring the front door bell. But meanwhile a couple of less conspicuous visitors slipped in the back way. Like the Man Who Came to Dinner, these fellows may stay much longer than they were invited. One of them is the rural telephone act. The other is the rural housing provision in the National Housing Act. Both of them are first cousins to the welfare state.

The telephone act, recently signed by the President, is a pretty fair piece of legislation on its face value. It authorizes the government to lend $25 million during the next year for the extension of phone services in back-country areas. As finally passed, the bill included a couple of healthy safeguards. There's a provision which gives existing companies and cooperatives a 12-month priority on seeking loans to expand telephonic facilities. There's another which forbids duplication of services in any given area.

Just An Appetizer

If that were the end of it, well and good. Give the visitor at the back door a square meal and then speed him on his way. Buy now that Mr. Truman has made the Act official, the guests are showing less disposition to dust the crumbs of hospitality off their chins and move on. That $25 million, I'm told by a spokesman within the Agriculture Department, isn't supposed to be a full meal—just an appetizer. The way Secretary Brannan's mathematicians figure it is funny arithmetic. They say that $2 million a month is about all they can find takers for on a loan basis. So when the $25 million is gone next year, they'll be back for more.

Do they anticipate any defaulters on these loans? Yes, but the defaulters will be commercial companies rather than cooperatives. The reasoning here is that any company with a good business risk can raise a loan at the bank. Companies who've been turned down by the banks will ask for government loans and maybe fail anyhow.

Danger In Practice

It doesn't take an economic wizard to see the danger in this practice. If it continues, any organized minority can vote itself government-supported services, anything from telephones to dry cleaning. It is a neat way of nationalizing any industry which insists on the capitalistic principle of the profit motive.

In the matter of rural housing, the law provides that the government lay out $275 million to improve farm dwellings and structures. Basically, the purpose here was to furnish 4 per cent loans for 33 years for the improvement of profit-showing farms. Records show that this is a pretty good idea. In the recent past, successful farmers haven't needed a lifetime to make repayments. They've squared up their borrowings often in a matter of four or five years.

Grants As Well As Loans

But the present law gives grants, as well as loans, to farmers who haven't made a profit in spite of all the subsidies and free services of recent years. Handouts to unsuccessful farmers—the Federal adjective is "subsistence"—are limited to $500 and they must be spent on sanitation and fire protection. This isn't a princely sum, and it's nice to think that the government can afford to treat its hard-luck or even shiftless ruralites to indoor plumbing and safety devices.

But where do we go from there? Does anyone imagine that Congressional candidates-for-re-election, having obligated the government to modernize tumble-down farm houses, can stop at the stated minimum. Campaign speeches for 1950 are already beginning to show a thriving mat of rural welfare promises in exchange for the promise of rural votes.

Federal Made Prosperity

Much of this wouldn't be worth mentioning if it didn't appear in farm legislation. We have had a long experience in trying to establish Federal-made prosperity on the American farm. We abandoned the concept of supply-and-demand in favor of price protection and surplus production. Yet all the billions from the Federal treasury have not produced an agrarian utopia. The rich still get rich and the poor stay poor. The public is still asked to dig down in its pocket to buy telephones and bathrooms for the one economic class in America which has been paternalized above all others.

The funny part is that the American farmer, as a political being, is among the most vocal supporters of free enterprise and initiative. He knows that you still have to get up early and work late to amount to much. But some of the recent guests who come to his back door may give him a surprise. They're going to be mighty hard to get rid of.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

Let us look at this matter of strikes from a strictly human point of view. The best way to do that, I think, is to take a specific case.

After five-and-a-half-months the Singer Sewing Machine company strike was settled some days ago. The striking employees voted to accept a new contract which grants none of the major demands over which they walked out on May 2.

According to reports, the walk-out cost 7,500 members of the union involved an estimated twelve million dollars in wages.

That is $1600 for each striker. Now let us say that the strike had brought each of the workers an extra ten cents an hour.

In order to make up for the loss caused by idleness they would have to work 16,000 hours each to have the increase repay them for this loss.

Or figure, if any way you want to, a 168-day loss of pay is a pretty poor investment on such a small return.

No matter how you look at it, what is gained by a strike?

Has anything ever been accomplished by a strike that could not have been accomplished much more quickly and cheaply by sitting down as human beings and talking things over the way people settle family differences or business differences between "equals"?

Please notice that I have put "equals" in quotation marks. Because in reality employers and employees are equals.

But somehow, rabble rousers have established an idea that there is a difference between Capital and Labor, that Capital considers itself superior to Labor and tries to exploit it.

"Capital," to use that foolish expression for a moment, would be stupid indeed to bite the hand that feeds it.

Not that it has not been done in the past—else we would not have this feeling of antagonism between Capital and Labor.

But, in my opinion, no halfway intelligent member of "Capital" is foolish enough to imagine that he could long remain in the "Capital" category if he did not realize that Labor is entitled to its share and has a right to demand it.

An America without Capital, which is the basis of all free enterprise, would be about the same as an army without officers.

In every free undertaking there must be leaders and followers. No person in his right mind will maintain that the leaders who have put years of planning and studying and millions of dollars into their enterprises are not entitled to more money than those whose only investment is eight hours a day.

Nor will anyone in his right mind maintain that the stockholder who invests his savings in an enterprise is not entitled to a fair return on the money which he himself earned and had the wisdom to lay by.

Unfortunately there are too many false leaders who use Labor for their own enrichment and fattening. If they had to serve without pay while their unions are on strike, I wonder how many strikes there would be.

I don't say I am right. That's just the way it looks to me from where I sit.

Congratulates Local Talent Search Winner

Joe Kosciński, age 15, is being congratulated by Mr. Hammond of the Hammond Music Store for the splendid showing he made in the Talent Contest held last week in connection with the Dick Contino Show. Joe earned his right to appear with the Contino Show held at the Cathedral through his being judged one of six winners among approximately ninety highly talented contestants! Shown with Mr. Hammond and Joe is Sammy Marzano who heads the accordion department at the Hammond Store. You can tell by Mr. Marzano's smile that he is also highly pleased as he has been Joe's only instructor. Joe has studied but two years. While in New Castle Mr. Contino spent quite some time at the Hammond Music Store, they being the exclusive Excelsior Accordion dealer in Lawrence County, which is the accordion Dick Contino uses and endorses.

CULL APPLES CAN BE FED TO DAIRY COWS

Apples are greatly relished by cows and make a good feed when properly used in moderate amounts. The dry matter in apples has a feeding value equal to that of corn silage.

Apples contain twice as much moisture as corn silage, making their value on the ton basis one-half that of corn silage. Cows will eat 30 pounds of apples a day if chopped up in a root cutter.

Overfeeding apples to cows may cause them to "dry up." This has happened when cows have broken into orchards or have had access to large quantities of apples and have eaten to excess. Choking may also result from feeding whole apples. A moderate amount of chopped or sliced apples may be fed satisfactorily to milking cows. Apples probably have their greatest value as a conditioner or appetizer feed.

PLAN NOW TO MULCH STRAWBERRIES SOON

Lawrence county strawberry growers should make definite plans now to mulch their plantings as soon as 20 degree weather becomes fairly regular.

Haul good, clean wheat straw free from weed seeds, to the strawberry planting. If placed in several spots conveniently located, much hand labor and time can be saved when the mulch is applied. Furthermore, straw hauled now will absorb enough moisture to give it weight to stay in place when forked on the strawberry rows. Avoid the use of sodden straw, however, because it tends to pack down and smother plants.

Rye straw and buckwheat straw are not considered so good as wheat straw but are fair substitutes. Marsh hay, where available, also is good.

Old timothy hay, oats straw, and three leaves may be better than no covering at all, but they certainly are last choice because of their tendency to pack down and smother the plants. Timothy hay may carry enough seed to create a weed menace next spring or the following year if the old strawberry bed is carried over for another year.

Officials Cite Two Reasons Why Small Planes Use Fields

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4. — (INS) — Civil Aeronautics Board officials cited at least two major reasons Thursday why small private planes and military-type aircraft are permitted to land and take off from busy municipal airports.

The facts were given in response to angry reaction from Tuesday's mid-air collision at Washington National Airport between a P-38 fighter and an Eastern Airlines DC-4 which killed 55 persons.

Here is CAB's explanation:

1. Municipal airports are built with public funds and therefore are available for use by any taxpayer who pays his landing fees.
2. Military-type planes, or converted military aircraft—especially fighters, are high-speed aircraft requiring extremely long runways to land and take off.

JOSEPH R. HENSLEY

A Candidate For School Director Invites You To Compare and Urges You to Vote

With the full realization that locally the political party of my choice is in the minority—the under-dog if you please, I never-the-less, in keeping with the best traditions of the American Way of Life, which envisions a two-party system for government, became a candidate of that party for the office of School Director in the City of New Castle. The Office pays no salary. Under these circumstances I have conducted a modest and decorous campaign up to the point where the causes which impel me to write this article have become insufferable.

Since becoming a nominee of the Democratic party, the local minion of special privilege who presumes to speak for all members of his party, has refused to discuss any issues and following in the footsteps of Boies Penrose has literally attempted to wrap himself in the American flag and talk about the Constitution. I find no fault with him on this score for I believe the Citizens of New Castle and Lawrence county are intelligent enough to realize that this is the case. I do bitterly resent the innuendo and implication by which he has sought and attempted in the most insidious manner, that is by generalization, to implant in the minds of the electorate that Democrats are ignorant, reds, socialists or in some other implied way are un-American. He has ORDERED all Republicans to compare he does not say with what, and then elect HIS candidates, that is those candidates whose choice was forced selection in the primaries by the use of swollen war chests of special privilege, for his own special reasons.

As you the electorate are the final judge, I believe it fitting and proper that you have some other basis for your decision than HIS orders and HIS outpouring of gold to party or machine henchmen who have orders to attempt to set aside your own judgment. I therefore to refute his attempts, offer for your consideration my personal background, history and work experience:—My ancestors have lived in the United States since the founding of the republic, have been Democrats since the time of Thomas Jefferson and in the succeeding generations were pioneers in Virginia, the Carolina uplands and in Kentucky. I was born in 1906 in a log cabin a few miles from the city of Ashland, Kentucky. I completed a technical course in high school and two years of Business Administration in Ashland and twenty-five years ago chose New Castle for my home. I have taken extensive work in Mechanical Engineering and in Personnel and Labor relations and in addition have participated in various in-service training programs in connection with my employment. I have been married—to the same wife—for twenty-five years and last is not yet of school age. To earn a living I have swept floors, wheeled metal, worked as a machine operator, as a production control clerk, as an estimating engineer, a personnel manager and primarily in various types of engineering. I was manager of the local office of the Pennsylvania state employment service for three years, was Assistant Chief Draftsman in the Engineering Division of Allied Chemical—a 500 man engineering department and was Manager of Manufacturing Planning for Goodyear Aircraft Corporation, a 35,000 man warplane plant. In these last two positions I possessed information, had access to materials and made decisions involving millions of dollars and the lives of men. Naturally under these circumstances my entire life was very carefully scrutinized by the Federal Bureau of Investigation before I was cleared for these positions. I am now employed as a Mechanical Engineer on the staff of the District Manager of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company. My work is on improvement projects involving new buildings, equipment, materials or processes.

I am a member of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church. I belong to the following organizations: Mahoning-Shenango Valley Engineer's Society, Lawrence County Sportsman's Association, the New Castle Coin Club, the Knights of Columbus, the Ecclesias Club, the Slovak Club and the Greater Beneficial Union. Am a Troop Committeeman for Troop 50, Boy Scouts of America, sponsored by the Ecclesias Club.

The office of School Director is in effect that of a board of directors who's chief duties are to obtain qualified professional and service employees for staffing the public school system, to supervise and, or, authorize the maintenance of school property and the erection of school buildings and the making of policy and establishment of tax rates or obtaining tax monies to carry out this program. I believe it is only good economy to obtain the professional employees, the staff all from the highest possible calibre. I know it is good economy to obtain service employees and others who will maintain the buildings and grounds in a high state of repair.

I will not presume to tell you to compare and elect any one. I do urge every citizen of New Castle and Lawrence County to seriously consider and to exercise your sacred American right to vote for the candidate of your own free choice.

McCoy Bible Class
Meets On Thursday

To Use Study Book 'Faith In God':
Arrangements Made For Christmas Party

Mrs. Myrtle Miller of 427 Garfield avenue entertained members of McCoy Bible class of Mahoning Methodist church, at her home on Thursday evening, with a good attendance. Mrs. Ruby Arble conducted the devotional exercises.

Mrs. Jean Kutz presided; plans were made for a Christmas dinner on Thursday evening, December 1. Arrangements were decided upon for taking up study book "Faith in God" in "The Advance for Christ and His Church" at coming meetings.

Fancy work and chat was the diversion of the evening. Mrs. Hazel Miller was a special guest. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, with Mrs. Beatrice Davy as her aide. Next meeting will be the Christmas party.

Ward Hunter Shoots
Down Large Grey Fox

Joseph Felice of 221 East Clayton street reports that while hunting on Tuesday, between East Brook and Volant, a grey fox ran across his path, which he immediately shot. The animal measured 39 inches from nose to tip of tail. Mr. Felice was in a party of four, his two sons, Joseph Jr. and Domenick, and brother-in-law, Andy Nocera of Junior High street. Each in party had limit of four rabbits. Mr. Felice states that Reynard wreaks much destruction among pheasants.

to reach Hills Grove State airport, was found dead today, his plane wrecked.

The plane was found about twenty miles from the Providence hotel, where the victim, Cleo McVicker, 46, was to have met his son, Joseph, 20, for dinner last night.

McVicker had put out of Groton, Conn., airport at 6:30 p. m.

McVicker's body and the wrecked plane were found as Coast Guard and harbor police boats were scouring Quincy, Mass., bay for the aircraft, as a result of reports a plane had been heard circling in that area for two hours last night.

Propaganda Unit
Of Navy Disbanded

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Capt. Arleigh A. "31-Knot" Burke and his ink-slinging navy task force went down gallantly today in something his Pacific destroyer squadron never suffered defeat.

Only 24 hours after formally succeeding Adm. Louis Denfeld as chief of naval operations, Adm. Forrest P. Sherman disbanded Burke's so-called "underground propaganda" unit, which was a speech-writing outfit more than anything else.

This knocked out the core and nucleus of the navy's verbal fighting forces in its long feud with the air force and its attack on the strategic bombing concept and the B-36 program.

Study Advertisements Is Advice Of Babson

By ROGER W. BABSON
(Copyright—1949—Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.)
BABSON PARK, Mass., Nov. 4.—I wonder if we spend enough time studying the advertisements in our daily or weekly newspapers? In addition to comparing prices charged by different concerns for the same articles in any given week, there is another most interesting comparison.

If you will make a scrapbook of advertisements over a period of years, you will become an ardent believer in Newton's law of action and reaction. One of the best clues of the financial situation is not the stock market, but the relative number of those concerns advertising to hire people compared with the number of persons wanting jobs. It would be a fine thing for newspapers to summarize these figures each week and report thereon as they now report the rainfall, temperature and stock market averages. Business and investment analysts get some of their best information from comparing the advertisements of goods and prices.

I am especially interested in watching the bankruptcy sales of businesses which appear in most Sunday newspapers. During the war, there were few such and—when they did appear—they referred mostly to garages, filling stations and other business real estate. Often then, in this column, I advised readers to buy some of these bargains. Those who followed my advice can double or triple their money today. Since the war I have been telling readers that a time will come again when more bargains can be obtained.

How To Get Bargains
These bankruptcy advertisements are now increasing; but the time to buy has—in my opinion—not yet come. So many veterans have gone into business about which they know nothing that there may be a million business failures during the next few years. Some will be in your own community. Hence, now is a time to build up a good bank account in order to take advantage of these bargains if they later appear. More money has been made with PATIENCE than with any other thing. The "Business Opportunities" may increase every week for the next two or three years. Next to good bank accounts, the best investments which parents can make today are in practical education. I don't mean in an tors and radios. Also read the advertisements and news columns relating to schools, colleges and churches. The future of your children depends on their character, education and health—much more than on styles, deodorants or hair oils. If women would give the thought to the inside of their heads that they give to the outside, most of America's troubles would be over. If we men would read the editorials of our newspapers with the care which we give the sports pages, there would be little unemployment and no advertised "bargains" of bankrupt businesses.

Liquor Banished From California University Campus

University Authorities Crack Down On Students With New Rules

BERKELEY, Cal., Nov. 4.—(INS)—The jug o' wine, the cocktail glass, the beer mug and the whiskey jigger were sternly banished from the University of California today.

So was the unsupervised necking party. Said an edict handed down by the university authorities: There'll be no serving or imbibing of alcoholic beverages of any kind at any student affairs, on or off the campus.

Nor will any gathering attended by both male and female students be tolerated unless one chaperon is on the premises.

"house rules" circulated yesterday at all fraternities, sororities and dormitories.

The edict evoked an immediate flareup, but no real rebellion materialized. Protest signs sprang up in front of houses along "fraternity row," one of them warning that every liquor dealer in Berkeley will go broke if the rules are enforced.

But the signs disappeared within a few hours because of what some students described as "pressure from higher-ups." In silent protest some men students donned black mourning armbands.

FEW FOREST FIRES CAUSED BY HUNTERS

HARRISBURG, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Few forest fires caused by hunters in the state were reported Thursday by the Department of Forests and Waters.

Although rainfall earlier in the week minimized the chance of fire, department officials warned hunters against carelessness in heavily wooded areas during the entire season.

Symphony Rehearses For First Concert

Symphony Orchestra In Readiness For First Winter Concert On November 9

Worrell M. Jones, president of the New Castle Symphony Association, states that the orchestra is putting the final touches to its program for next Wednesday evening.

Anthony Casbero, capable director of the Symphony Orchestra, has been working industriously for the past few weeks. An entirely new program is planned for the concert.

Dress Rehearsal
A dress rehearsal will be held at the Cathedral on Tuesday, November 8, at 7:15. The symphony will present its first radio broadcast over WKST that evening from 8:30 to 8:55.

Attendance has been good at the rehearsals. The members are eagerly awaiting the first concert of November 9, to be held at the Cathedral at 8:30. The sale of season tickets has ended, but tickets for the concert are available at the Symphony office, Room 417 of the Lawrence Savings and Trust, or by phoning 7141.

A student matinee for the city and county school children will be presented on Wednesday, November 9, at 2:30 p.m.

FIVE NEW RESIDENCES
Construction during October represented an expenditure of $82,500, according to city bureau of building records. Included in the same was $33,000, for five new residences. Non-residential building cost $45,775, and remodeling, $3,815.

Permits granted recently were to: Clarence J. Snyder, 503 Eighth street, repair house for garage; Domenick Prospero, 101 Second street, block garage, $500, and Max Ludwig company, panel board, South Mill street between Lutton and Phillips street.

Committee Named To Study Control Of Smoke In State

HARRISBURG, Nov. 4.—(INS)—State Sen. Fred P. Hare of Somerset on Thursday was named chairman of an eight-man special committee to study smoke and soot control throughout the state.

Rep. Baker Royer of Lancaster, chairman of the joint state government commission, in making the appointments said the investigation was authorized by the 1949 General assembly.

Bonus Rally Held By Legion

Perry S. Gaston Post Sponsors Meeting To Discuss Amendment

Veterans of both world wars packed the Legion Home on North Jefferson street, Thursday evening, when arrangements were made to have workers at the polls on next Tuesday in the interest of the amendment, which would provide a bonus to veterans of the late war, for their services in this conflict.

The Perry S. Gaston Post band staged a parade in the downtown section, preceding the meeting and also played on the Legion lawn before the program started.

Moffatt Presides
Commander Earl C. Moffatt presided, and called on Mannings Weller to welcome those present. Remarks also being given by Mrs. Edna Hedland, president of the Auxiliary, and A. E. Walker, program chairman.

Robert E. Emerick, a member of the post, presented some interesting tricks in magic.

The principal addresses were given by Assemblyman James C. Brice, a member of Perry S. Gaston Post, who reported the bonus bill out of committee at the last meeting of the legislature; Guy J. Wadlinger, former Western Vice Commander of the Legion, and Tom V. Davis, along with Gomer Emery, post chairman of the bonus effort. Attorney Joseph Solomon and Frank Bailey, commander of Col. Charles H. Young Post, No. 528.

Later in the evening, the group heard State Commander Walter Aliesandro and State President Mrs. Leonard Bradley, of the Auxiliary speak over a state-wide radio hook-up.

Lunch was served at the close of the evening's program.

City Police Aid To Public Library

Police Cooperate With Librarian
In Collecting Books Long Overdue

New Castle city police department is assisting the New Castle Free Public Library, in touring the city to collect overdue books, belonging to the library.

This announcement was made this morning by librarian, Miss Alice Sterling.

Using one of the police cars with an officer, the librarian has during the past two mornings, made 22 calls thus far this week.

Miss Sterling reclaimed 18 books due between January 1 and September 1, 1949.

Some of the persons that were called upon were away at the time, and a second call will be necessary. In case a borrower has moved away, it is usually possible to get the new address.

The maximum fine on each overdue book is fifty cents.

It is possible under the state law to bring suit against any person who refuses to return books borrowed from a public library, the librarian stated.

It is hoped that such a step will not be necessary here, and that borrowers will cooperate with the library.

PARADISE, Kan. — Although liquor is legal in Kansas now, Paradise has no liquor store.

NEW TRAFFIC SIGNS

Willis G. McMullen, acting chief of police today caused traffic signs to be placed at the top of Shaw street hill, instructing motorists to shift gears before descending the steep grade.

Some time ago Shaw street was made a one way street, but residents owning cars objected to the order, hence McMullen's instructions today.

Rev. R. J. McConnell Installation Sunday

Program Announced For Installation At Slippery Rock Presbyterian Church

Installation services will be held at the Slippery Rock Presbyterian church on Sunday evening, November 6, at 7:45 o'clock, at which the Rev. Ralph J. McConnell will officially become the pastor of the church.

A committee of Shenango Presbytery with the moderator of Presbytery, the Dr. Robert F. Galbreath, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of New Castle, presiding will have charge of the installation.

The Rev. Mr. McConnell, formerly pastor of the Stoneboro and Jackson Center congregations, was received by the Shenango Presbytery at its regular meeting at the Bell Memorial Presbyterian church on Tuesday, Oct. 25, and plans were made for his installation.

Dr. Galbreath will preside and propound the questions. The Rev. Oliver R. Stang, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Ellwood City, will preach the sermon, the Rev. Jesse, pastor of the West Midlands Presbyterian church will give the charge of the pastor, and the Rev. William F. Byers, who was the interim pastor at Slippery Rock church will give the charge to the people.

Other clergymen taking part in the service include, the Rev. Raymond A. Pitzer, pastor of the North Sewickley and Knox Presbyterian churches, Rev. Abraham B. Weisz, pastor of the Volant and Rich Hill Presbyterian churches and the Rev. E. Chester Crabb, pastor of the Bessemer Presbyterian church.

Special music will be furnished by the Slippery Rock choir under the direction of William Boyer director of the choir.

Windsor chairs are said to have appeared first in Philadelphia.

ASLEEP AT THE SWITCH
A switch is not a good place to sleep. A train might happen along and mess things up.

Sleep is a good thing. It seems that people need about eight hours for sleep every day.

Regularly of sleep seems to be a good thing too. Four hours one day and twelve hours the next do not average things up very well.

Worry and fear and apprehension and excitement do not help very much.

Perhaps it is a good idea to figure that sleep is the main thing. Anything which interferes with it is to be avoided if possible.

Children and old people seem to need more sleep than others do.

Peace of mind and avoidance of unnecessary excitement help to provide a good night time.

TAKE BIDS MONDAY
City clerk will read to council, Monday, in city hall, prices offered for 800 square feet of ground along Cascade street. The city hopes to realize sufficient money from the sale to pay for the construction of a circus ground across from the dump in Cascade street.

Coast Area Reported Gradually Sinking

Washington Commissioner Says
White House Is Thoroughly
Deteriorated

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Commander Lewis C. Cox of the Long Beach, Calif., naval shipyard, said Thursday that a 12-square mile area in the Los Angeles-Long Beach harbor area has sunk more than nine feet in 12 years.

Cox, in a speech prepared for delivery to a section of the American Society of Civil Engineers convention, said the section is sinking two inches every month and may drop as much as 23 feet by 1963.

The navy engineer blamed removal of sand and oil from the Wilmington oil field for the subsidence, which he said threatened to do hundreds of millions of dollars damage if not halted.

Another speaker at the convention, W. E. Reynolds, Washington Commissioner of Public Buildings, said that the White House, now closed for reconstruction, is so thoroughly deteriorated that "only force of habit" has kept it standing.

Illustrated Hymns At Pulaski Church

Pulaski Methodist Youth Fellowship will sponsor a slide worship program entitled "The Good Shepherd" at 7:15 p. m. Sunday, November 6, at the Pulaski Methodist church.

Members of the Youth Fellowship will take part in the worship service. Lynn Fowler will sing a solo, and Rev. Merle G. Weaver will present the sermon. This is the first program of this kind to be presented in Pulaski.

HELD IN WIFE SHOOTING
WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 4.—(INS)—Police held a 44-year-old Binghamton, N. Y., man today in connection with the fatal shooting of his estranged wife in her Wilmington apartment.

The victim was Mrs. Dorothy Sutton, 36, a waitress who had been separated from her husband more than a year.

Police arrested the husband, Bland, a gas station attendant, in her apartment a short time after a man had phoned to them from the flat that he had just "killed a woman."

FUGITIVES RETAKEN
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 4.—(INS)—Two Charleston convicts who wearied of their jobs at road camps and took a walk were recaptured today.

Deputy Sheriff J. W. Whitlock quoted the two Kanawha county convicts, Harold Orville Scott, 30, and Ernest Stevens, 25, as saying: "We prefer penitentiary life. Road camps are too tough."

LOS ANGELES, (INS)—Traffic Judge Roger Pfaff ordered a Los Angeles youth to sell his automobile because of repeated traffic violations. The next day the boy was back in court—charged with jay walking.

Mission Auxiliary Has Second Meeting

Announce Plans For Packing Of Thanksgiving Baskets For Needy During Month

Second meeting of the newly organized City Rescue Mission women's auxiliary took place on November 1 at the mission, 17 South Mercer street, at 2 p. m.

A period of devotions prefaced the meeting. Mrs. F. D. Marshall told of the fine response to the mission by various organizations which enabled the staff to carry on its good work. Several food showers were held and numerous towels have been given.

The report of the nominating committee was given by Mrs. O. W. Hurst, chairman, with the following report given and the officers elected: president, Mrs. Kenneth Lutz, Christian and Missionary Alliance; vice president, Mrs. W. Hufford, Epworth; secretary, Mrs. George Glass, Third U. P.; treasurer, Mrs. Ed Borger, Calvary Tabernacle; chaplain, Mrs. Burr Rogers, First Baptist.

Mrs. Lutz announced plans for filling Thanksgiving baskets. Canned food and other items for the mission can be left there not later than November 22. A chicken will be put in each basket and contributions for this work will be accepted. Announcement was made of plans for the auxiliary Christmas party when each will bring a small gift for the men of the mission.

Mrs. C. Barbour and Mrs. R. Mooney sang two selections. Mrs. Marshall introduced the speaker, Rev. Claude J. Moore of Jamestown, N. Y., who spoke on Luke 4 as a theme. Sewing at the mission will be held on Tuesday, November 8, at 10 a. m.

Boyles Company New Sterling Products Distributor Here

Sterling oil division of the Quaker State Oil Refining corporation has announced that Boyles Coal & Supply company of 502 Neal street has been named the distributor for their products in New Castle and vicinity.

The old reliable firm with more than 25 years business experience in the city and county, through the Sterling company, has remodeled the old Coates service station at 211 South Mill street as a model station. The company will not only service this station, but the many other filling stations in New Castle and surrounding territory which handle the quality products of the Sterling company.

The Boyles company is presently operated by E. N. Boyles and his two sons, Paul R. Boyles and Russell D. Boyles. They will continue to conduct their other business as well as their new gasoline and oil distributing service.

AWARDED PHYSICS PRIZE
STOCKHOLM, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Dr. Hideki Yukawa, 42-year-old Japanese nuclear physicist, was awarded the 1949 Nobel prize for physics.

He is the first Japanese ever selected in the 49-year history of the award.

Dr. Yukawa, now a visiting professor at Columbia university, startled the scientific world in 1935 when he announced his revolutionary theory on the existence of a new particle now known as the meson.

LOCAL MAN WED IN CLEVELAND

Announcement is made of the marriage in Cleveland of Miss Ann Russo of that city to John Di-Alessandro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory DiCaprio, New Castle. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Russo, Cleveland.

Wedding vows were exchanged on Oct. 15, in the Holy Family church of Cleveland. Rev. Fr. Francis Masin officiating at the double ring service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in the traditional white satin with which she wore an illusion fingertip veil trimmed with lace and fastened to a laced satin Juliet cap. A white orchid and white roses made up the bridal bouquet.

Miss Amelia Russo, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, was in aqua satin. Another sister, Miss Mary Jane Russo, was bridesmaid. She wore a gown of gold satin.

Nick DiAlessandro, brother of the groom, was best man. Usher was Gregory DiCaprio, Jr., also a brother of the groom.

Following the ceremony, the bridal couple planned to Detroit for a short honeymoon. They are now residing at 818 Arlington avenue, this city.

The bride is a graduate of John Hay high school, Cleveland and was affiliated with the Central National Bank of Cleveland for four years. Her husband is a graduate of New Castle high school, entering the navy upon graduation. He is also a graduate of National Radio school, Cleveland, and is employed as a radio engineer with W.K.S.T.

BARBARA J. WALKER HONORED AT SHOWER

Miss Barbara Jean Walker, fiancée of Rolfe K. Akers, Jr., was guest of honor as a pre-nuptial shower held recently in the home of her mother, Mrs. Raymond Krueger, 112 Smithfield street. Hostesses were her aunts, Mrs. Leonard Krueger, Mrs. Louis Krueger Sr., Mrs. E. D. Fee and Mrs. Wilbur Parshall.

The evening was spent informally with games being played, prizes for which were awarded Miss Ethel McGuire, Mrs. John Mehlich, Mrs. William Watters, Mrs. Louis McCreary, Mrs. George Williams, Mrs. Francis Schooley, Mrs. Bud Horchler, Mrs. Eugene Kendall, Mrs. Lizzie McGuire and Mrs. Durward Jones.

A dainty lunch was served by the hostesses, assisted by the bride-elect's mother, the halloween theme predominating in the appointments.

Later in the evening, the honoree was showered with a number of attractive gifts of a miscellaneous nature. The marriage of Miss Walker and Rolfe K. Akers, Jr., will take place on November 23 in St. John's Lutheran church, Rev. A. E. Simon will officiate at the open church wedding.

Kandelite Club Meets
Kandelite club members met at the home of Mrs. Joseph Fava, 618 East Reynolds street.

Games interested the members with honors going to Mrs. Louis DeLorenzo, and Mrs. William Humphrey. Door prize went to Mrs. Ralph Russo.

Lunch was served in the Halloween theme. On Nov. 10, members will be received at the home of Mrs. Louis Giangli, 803 North Mercer street.

J. H. W. TO HAVE THANK OFFERING

Mrs. Irvine A. Balph, of 401 Wallace avenue, will entertain the Jean Hill Williamson Missionary society of Highland United Presbyterian church at her home Monday evening, November 7.

Mrs. Earl J. Smith, thank offering secretary, will present the program. Mrs. Lowrie Anderson, a missionary on sabbatical leave from the South Sudan, will be the evening's speaker. Mrs. Anderson who has been in missionary work for 20 years, is residing at New Wilmington. Devotions will be conducted by Miss Margaret McCreary.

Mrs. C. Fred Haltnorth, Mrs. Arthur Sampson, Mrs. Carl Cheers, Mrs. Henrietta Higgins and Mrs. Russell H. Johnston will be hostesses at the yearly thank offering.

Pantherette Club
Pantherette club meeting scheduled for November 8, has been postponed until Nov. 22, President Mrs. Nick Ambrose announced today.

STRICKLER CLASS PLANS FOR DINNER

The Laura Strickler class of the First Baptist church met Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. A. Porte, Laurel boulevard, with Mrs. Bert McKibben as co-hostess.

Lovely fall flowers decorated the rooms. Devotionals were conducted by Mrs. P. T. Weyrick, who had "Thanksgiving" as her topic. She also read a poem entitled "I Thank Thee".

Plans were made to give pillow cases to the Rescue Mission. A Christmas dinner is planned for December 1 at the church. A gift exchange will be featured at that time. The committee in charge of arrangements consists of Mrs. C. L. Martin, chairlady; Mrs. Fred Howland and Mrs. Ross Phipps.

Mrs. J. A. Porte is chairlady of the table, decorated committee. A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses at an attractively appointed table.

Q-Jeans Club
Mrs. Anthony Villani, of East Long avenue, was hostess to the Q-Jeans club, Wednesday evening. Cards were played and Mrs. Paul Turco captured high prize. Mrs. Charles Biasucci won the club token. Aiding the hostess later in serving a dainty lunch were: Mrs. Guy Eagan, of Greenville; and Louise Capone, of Grove City, both special guests.

Mrs. Michael Turco, Winter avenue, will be hostess on November 16.

B. A. CLUB MEETS TO PLAN PARTY

Mrs. Joseph Panella, Huey street, opened her home to the B. A. club membership Thursday evening and a Christmas party and exchange were planned to be held in December.

The party will be at the home of Mrs. Tony Cooper, Cascade street, the date to be announced.

Tables of 500 were in play, high score trophies going to Mrs. Anthony Marino, Mrs. Arthur Prioretti and Mrs. Anthony Colaluca. The latter also captured the club token.

Special guest attending was Dorothy Latimer and she received a lovely prize.

Later, the hostess served a delicious lunch, with the aid of Mrs. Nicholas Casalandra and Mrs. Tony Cooper.

November 17 is the date for the meeting with Mrs. Anthony Colaluca of Duquesne street.

BRIDAL PAIR HOME FROM WEDDING TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kitzko are residing at R. D. 4, Harlansburg road, following a wedding trip. They were married on October 20 in St. Vitus church at a quiet ceremony.

Mrs. Kitzko is the former Miss Pauline Catherine Cappolina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Cappolina, Harlansburg road. Mr. Kitzko is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Kitzko, R. D. 9, New Castle.

The young couple exchanged vows at a 9 o'clock nuptial mass with Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita officiating, using the double ring ceremony. Organ music was presented by Mrs. Frances Colao.

A gown of white satin and French lace was worn by the bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle. Her fingertip veil fell from a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, white pompons and roses centered with an orchid.

Wearing a gown of blue satin

Miss Rose Marie Altieri presided in the maid of honor role. Bridesmaids Miss Catherine Kline and Miss Betty Jones were in pink satin.

Teddy Kosciuszko served the groom as best man. Ushers were Ernest V. Ialongo and Stanley Naderinski.

Mrs. Kitzko is a graduate of East Brook High school and is employed by the Shenango Pottery company. Her husband is employed by the State Liquor Control Board in New Castle.

H. T. P. Club Meets
Mrs. McKelvey Porter, Walnut street, opened her home to members of the H. T. P. club on Thursday evening.

Five hundred proved an interesting pastime with prizes going to Mrs. Roy Nelson, Mrs. Earl White and Mrs. John Smolnik.

Mrs. L. J. Tindall assisted the hostess in serving lunch.

Next meeting will be on Nov. 17 at the home of Mrs. John Smolnik, West Washington street.

TEACHERS, OFFICERS ENJOYABLE MEETING

The teachers and officers of the Central Christian church held their regular monthly business meeting Tuesday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Sentgeorge, 419 East Garfield avenue.

Elmer Glass presided at the meeting. Many subjects were discussed. After the meeting group singing was enjoyed, with Mrs. Charles Shoaff, Jr., at the piano.

A tempting lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Glenn Doerr.

The next meeting will be held December 6.

Ace-Hi Club Meets

An enjoyable afternoon of card playing was the pastime for members of the Ace-Hi club when they met Wednesday at the Elk's club.

Honors in the three table competition went to Mrs. Clyde Rorer, Mrs. Paul Green and Mrs. Russel Kightlinger.

Members will meet again next Wednesday at the Elk's club.

Poppy Day Plans Being Furthered

Annual Event On Saturday Will Benefit Auxiliary's Welfare Fund

GIRLS TO SELL POPPIES HERE

Saturday will again be Poppy Day in New Castle, when volunteer workers of the Perry S. Gaston Unit, American Legion Auxiliary, will be on the streets, offering memorial poppies to be worn in honor of the dead of this country's two world wars.

These poppies which are crepe paper replicas of the wild poppies which grew on the European battlefields of the two wars, have been made by disabled veterans, working in hospitals and convalescent workrooms throughout the country, enabling them to earn money for necessities while they are hospitalized.

Poppy Day activities of the Gaston Unit will be directed by Mrs. William Murphy, Poppy Day chairman. A large corps of volunteer workers has been organized to distribute the poppies in downtown and neighborhood centers.

"Much depends on the success of Poppy Day," Mrs. Murphy said today. "On the public response to our annual Poppy Day appeal, depends the Auxiliary's ability to carry forward its work for the disabled war veterans and for the children from whom war has taken a father's support. Poppy Day contributions give us the means to serve them with more than words of cheer."

Crommelin Defends Release Of Letters

Navy Captain Who Touched Off Denfeld Row Files Statement In Defense

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Capt. John G. Crommelin filed a statement in his own defense Thursday on charges that he broke navy regulations by the unauthorized release of confidential letters.

The navy said that the statement will not be made public. Crommelin's attorney said the contents will not be revealed by Crommelin.

The statement was understood to assert that Crommelin obtained the letters of Admirals Radford and Denfeld, and Vice Admiral Brogan, in an "open and above board" manner.

The release of the letters, criticizing unification, touched off a congressional investigation and a series of events which led to the ouster of Denfeld as chief of naval operations.

A navy source says that Crommelin could be either court-martialed or reprimanded after consideration of his statement.

Fire Damage In October Light

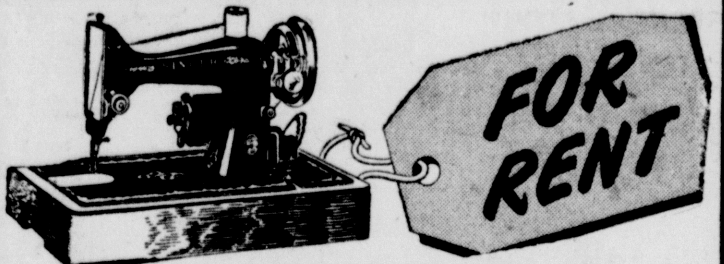

Fire damage in October was exceedingly light, Fire Chief H. F. Steinbrink reported today, the total fire loss during the month being but $300.

A total of 45 alarms were answered, which included eight false alarms, always more numerous during the halloween season. There were 19 alarms for grass fires and five for auto fires. Damage for auto fires was $110, the balance being on homes and buildings.

The valuation on buildings and autos affected was $48,150. Oxygen was administered to one person on the order of a doctor.

Court House

Eakin Improving;
To Miss Election

Veteran Of Court House
Service Will Miss Election Day Excitement

OTHER EVENTS
IN COURT HOUSE

Will A. Eakin, chief clerk to the county commissioners, is improving in the New Castle hospital but will probably have to miss the election on November 8.

Mr. Eakin was stricken while at his desk a few weeks ago and was taken to the hospital. He has shown improvement and is now seeing friends but about next Tuesday he will be like an old fire horse that is in pasture.

For the past 18 years he has had charge of all elections. The ballot was prepared for the printers by him, the election kits were made up and sent out by him and on election night he was on duty to receive the returns.

He has been active politically all his adult life. As a young man in Hillsville he took part in the workings of the Republican party. He served eight years as register and recorder, eight more as chief deputy and for the past 18 or 20 years he has been chief clerk to the county commissioners.

He has served the Republican party as chairman and in other ways. Next Tuesday will probably be the first vote he has missed in 50 years.

DUPLICATE TAGS AVAILABLE

Dog owners who find fido has shaken off his tag in the brush, or just plain lost it, can now get duplicates. With the opening of hunting season there has been such a demand for duplicates that the supply ran out.

A new, ample supply is now on hand for dog owners who wish to replace the tags.

CITY BALLOTS PRINTED

Ballots for the city offices in the November 8 election have been printed and bundled and are ready for packaging in the election kits. Boro and township ballots are expected to be done and ready for delivery by Thursday or Friday morning.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A little man strayed into a corner of a clubroom where a quartet of publishing tycoons were playing bridge. "I made 40 thousand in the cotton market last month," remarked Tycoon Lewis Miller idly.

"I picked up 50 thousand in a turn on Plymouth Oil," added Tycoon Nat Wartels.

"And I stashed away 75 thousand in a big day at the track," Tycoon Manny Siwek chimed in.

The little man interrupted the conversation by clearing his throat audibly, and commenting, "My yellows were off half a million last week, but reds soared two million and blacks were up four million more."

"What business are you in?" asked the publishing tycoon, vastly impressed.

The little man said, "Jelly beans."

"Fifteen dollars is mighty steep for a tiny bottle of perfume," grumbled Mrs. Klau. "Are you sure it's a scent men simply cannot resist?" "We are so confident of our product," said the sales clerk glibly, "that you can have your money back if it fails to work on your own husband!"

Nobel Literature
Prize Will Not Be Awarded This YearReason Is Inability Of Majority Of Prize Committee To Agree
On Candidate

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 4.—(INS)—The Nobel prize for literature will not be distributed this year because of the inability of a majority of the prize committee to agree on a candidate.

The committee discussed Ernest Hemingway as a possible award winner but decided it would be "unsuitable" to give an American the prize since American-born T. S. Eliott received it in 1948.

The little man subject at present. Other possible candidates discussed were Winston Churchill and Grahame Greene, English novelist.

The award has been reserved seven times since its inception—by wars and refusals to accept by the recipients.

The Swedish literary world is known to favor American William Faulkner for the $30,000 award next year.

Not in name, of course, but IN FACT—for while we never hold so-called bargain sales, our values are always in a class by themselves.

And rightly so! Because it's economic facts that make outstanding values possible, not claims or thought up names for promotional events.

Here are the facts that make Richman values so unbeatable: We make our own clothes, in our own workrooms, and sell them direct to you in our own stores.

We buy our fabrics from the finest mills in the world, we do a huge volume of business, we pay cash and sell for cash, we have the will to give value, and 70 years of know-how for carrying it out . . . Yes, every day is special value day at Richman's—and that's a fact, not an idle boast.

Plan Rat Control Drive Next Month

George Raney, Of North Beaver Named Chairman Of County Group

DECEMBER 7 SET AT RAT "D-DAY"

December 7 will be rat "D-Day" in Lawrence county, and thousands of rats, which are waxing fat off farmers' grain in the county, will meet their doom on that date. This date was selected by a group of representative farmers, who met in the court house Wednesday evening, to plan this year's annual rat control campaign.

George Raney, of North Beaver, was named chairman; and Robert Jamison, of Scott township, secretary and treasurer.

The poison bait, designed to exterminate as many rats as possible, will be mixed and distributed on December 7, and orders will be taken by representatives of the committee in the different communities, arrangements for which will be announced later.

Low Return On A. Atwater Kent's Costly Possessions

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Heirs of the late A. Atwater Kent, fabulous party-giver, have realized an astonishingly low return through auction sale of his elaborate hillside mansion, its 12 acres in expensive Bel-Air, and its costly contents.

His collection of 370 paintings, which he spent almost a lifetime and an untold fortune to collect, went under the gavel Wednesday for a fraction of the original cost. The prize of the collection, Thomas Gainsborough's "portrait of Thomas Chatterton", brought the top price, $1,000. It was purchased by Edward C. Washer of San Francisco for a Los Angeles bookshop.

George Moreland's "The Champion", which once was sold for more than $20,000, brought a mere $750.

Real estate and furnishings of the mansion were purchased Tuesday by Milton J. Wershow for $113,000.

IN THE OPEN

The countryside stood on the threshold of November, uncertain whether to laugh or cry. All forenoon the clouds played tag with a willing sun. Then a damp gray overcast moved in and the remainder of the day threatened to break out in tears at any moment. Old October hobbled along, bedraggled and down at the heel, but game to the end.

I rolled the car in against the bank and stepped out to find that a running fire had devoured more than an acre of the dry leaf mulch beneath the trees. There is a noisome dump in the center of this area and I suppose the blaze started in this mess of cans and rats and rubble. Several punky logs which had felt the searing flames were still smoldering.

From the big trees far up on the ridge came the unmistakable complaining of a pileated woodpecker. Ordinarily the log cock is a curious citizen. He'll come flying over to investigate a sharp hand clasp or two, or the rapping of a walking stick on a stout sapling. I gave this fellow the full routine, but he was completely interested and I never got so much as a glimpse of him.

Winter Patrol At Work

The winter patrol was already at work in the open woods. The whole entourage passed me as I waited for the log cock to make a move. There were chickadees and titmice, nuthatches and juncos, cardinals and a downy woodpecker in the procession. The bright green of wild ginger and Christmas fern accented the brown leaf blanket on the forest floor.

I scrambled across a fire-blackened gully and plunged up the hillside through a dignified grove of somber beech. The old brownish beech-drops had pushed through the mulch. In keeping with the Crickets were chirping along the roadsides, blissfully unmindful of the fact that the "wind month" of the Anglo-Saxons was just at hand and the corner. Grasshoppers by the dozen skittered away thru the grass as I walked from the garage to the house. A lone Monarch butterfly floated across in a southerly direction, surely about three weeks behind schedule.

I corralled a huge yellow pumpkin and prevailed upon the distaff side of my household to carve out a grinning "punkin face" for the window ledge. As darkness fell and a soft warm rain fulfilled the promise of the day, the glowing

PHILATHEA SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

Philathea Missionary society of Central Presbyterian church met in the Robert McKinney class room at the First Presbyterian church Thursday evening.

The Thanksgiving theme was used by Miss Edna Pringle, who was devotional leader for the evening.

Foreign topic was given by Miss Alice Sterling, who spoke on Thailand, formerly known as Siam, and how the Christian doctors fought malaria in that country. Reports were given by Miss Blanche Bright and Mrs. S. P. Tindall on the recent Presbyterian meeting.

A thank offering was received and Mrs. Edwin Fry, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the following slate of officers who were elected: president, Miss Blanche Bright; vice president, Mrs. Carl Wilson; secretary, Mrs. W. R. Book; treasurer, Miss Eva Johnston.

Mrs. Carl Wilson reviewed the third and fourth chapters of the study book, "Missions At The Grass Roots". Subjects of the chapters were "A Look At The Church" and "What Does Youth Want?"

At the conclusion of the interesting program, Mrs. Edwin Fry and Miss Marie Hutton served refreshments.

Trinity Lutheran Recalls Former Pastor To Church

Rev. Otto E. Maki Will Assume
Duties At East Side Church
Sunday; Reception Planned

Rev. Otto E. Maki, of Hibbing, Minn., has accepted a call from the Trinity Lutheran church, South Ray street, and has arrived in the city to assume his new duties. Rev. Maki, a veteran pastor of the Suomi synod of the Lutheran church, is no stranger to the city, as this will be his second time he has served as pastor to members of the local congregation. Rev. Maki served in the city from 1929 to 1933 before assuming his duties in the west.

A reception has been planned Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the church, when Rev. Maki and his family will be honored by the congregation of the East Side church.

The members of the Trinity Lutheran church are very happy that Rev. Maki has consented to return to the city and look forward to a long and fruitful ministry. He will be preaching his first sermon since arrival in the city this time on Sunday morning.

Marine Corps Reserves Meet

Gather At Shelby Auditorium In Ellwood City On Thursday Evening

Utilizing a new meeting room in the Shelby Auditorium in Ellwood City, personnel of the Marine Corps Reserve, TU-12, conducted their bi-weekly meeting Thursday evening.

VTU-12 have drill periods under the command of Major Robert White of New Castle, on alternate Thursday evenings. Programs consist of lecture periods and motion pictures on various phases of Marine Corps procedure. Motion pictures of general interest are also used.

In this week's meeting, Capt. James Wallover gave an educational lecture on "Forward Observers", drawing on personal experience to emphasize his points. Movies of the "Marianas Campaign" and news briefs on the aftermath of the war in Europe and the Philippines were shown.

Adjutant of the local VTU is Lt. Michael Hasback of Evans City and the Sgt./Major is Billy F. Nelson of Harmony.

Announce Plan For Mailing Of Dividend Checks

Veterans Administration Tells Order
In Which Checks Will Be Mailed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—The Veterans Administration announced today that National Service Life Insurance special dividend checks will be issued on a basis of the last three digits of the service serial number.

More than 16 million ex-GI's are to share in the 2 billion 800 million dollar melon which is to be cut up beginning in January, 1950. The VA explained that applications will be broken down into groups as they are received. These groups will be separated into 10 processing units by the last serial digit, from 0 to 9. The first large group of applications is now being worked.

Thus, the agency said, a veteran whose serial number is 35496000 will be included in the first mailing because the last three digits of his serial number are three zeroes. But a veteran whose serial number ends with 990 will be included in a later mailing, since the processing is being carried out "from left to right".

The VA said it hopes to handle 200,000 checks a day.

Officials said that the payment method was selected as "the most non-discriminating system that could be devised".

For veterans who had more than one serial number while in service, the number which appears on the NSLI policy will be used. The dividend application number which appears on the acknowledgment card returned to the applicant has no bearing on the order of payment.

Two Found Dead In New York Hotel

Young Woman And Man Are Stabbed To Death; Murder And Suicide

(BULLETIN)
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—(INS)—An attractive young woman translator for Voice of America broadcasts and a man tentatively identified as a Chinese employee of United Nations were found dead of multiple stab wounds today in a New York hotel.

The woman, said to be Bulgarian nationality, was nude. The man was clad in undershorts. Their bodies were found in a 17th floor suite of the Hotel Alamac (at 71st street and Broadway.)

Police said it appeared to be murder and suicide. Because of the several stab wounds on each body detectives would not surmise which one killed the other.

The woman was identified as Mushama Zolyak, 33.

The man registered at the hotel at 8 p.m. last night under the name of T. O. Li but papers in his possession, police said, also carried the name of Wee Kue and indicated he was employed by UN as a documents clerk.

Nevada has fewer than two people per square mile.

Repair Work On White House To Be Started Soon

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—The long-delayed repair work on the White House is expected today to get under way almost immediately.

The cost-plus renovation contract was awarded the McShain company of Philadelphia which submitted the lowest of 15 bids with a fixed fee of $100,000. The contract specifies that the work be completed within 22 months. Congress has appropriated slightly more than four million dollars for the renovation repair and modernization of the executive mansion.

It was a year ago this Sunday that the White House was pronounced unsafe for occupancy by a group of architects and engineers. Within a few weeks the President and his family had moved across Pennsylvania avenue to Blair house which, until then, had been maintained as a residence for distinguished foreign dignitaries.

Medical Society Hears Speaker

Dr. A. H. Aaron Of University Of Buffalo Speaks: Special Meeting Planned

"The Treatment of Peptic Ulcers" was the informative subject discussed by Dr. A. H. Aaron, professor of medicine of the University of Buffalo, Thursday evening. The talk was given at the meeting of the Lawrence County Medical Society held at The Castleton, at 9 o'clock.

Dr. Charles Whalen, president, introduced the speaker. Dr. A. H. Aaron is the program chairman. A special meeting has been planned by the Medical Society in conjunction with the Lawrence County Dental Association to be held on Wednesday, November 30, in the nurses home auditorium of the Jameson Memorial hospital.

Congressman Louis Graham will be the speaker at this time. Dr. William F. Clark was welcomed as a new member last evening, his membership having been transferred from Lehigh county, Allentown, Pa. He resides at 109 South Walnut street. December 1, is the next Medical Society meeting.

McBride Post Will Have Annual Dinner

Armistice Day Event Will Be Held In Post Home Sunday Afternoon

Plans were completed by members of the Cpl. Harry L. McBride Post, No. 522, V.F.W., for the annual turkey dinner, which will be held on Sunday, November 6, at 2:30 o'clock in the post home on West Grant street.

In addition to an old-fashioned turkey dinner, there will be a program of entertainment, which will include moving pictures during the rest of the afternoon. Commander Wendell Morrison announced today.

BUILDING PERMITS
Andrew Pfahles, contractor, today received from the city bureau of building, a permit to construct two 1½ frame dwellings at 1011 and 1013 Rose avenue. The cost of the structures will be $20,000, according to the contractor's estimate.

STANFORD-USC SEEK BOWL BID

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Stanford and Southern California, two teams trying to fan the dying embers of their Rose Bowl hopes, meet tomorrow in Los Angeles in the top grade game of the weekend on the Pacific Coast.

The unbeaten California Bears who have a long lead going into the stretch in the race for the Roses, take a back seat in public interest since their weekend foe is Washington State College, rated a breather this year.

America's bakeries turn out more than $100,000,000 worth of pies every year.

U.S. Moves To Block Shipments To Communists

Stringent Export Controls On 100 Strategic Commodities Are Ordered

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—The Commerce department today clamped stringent export controls on 100 strategic commodity groups in a move aimed at blocking shipments to Communist China and other Iron Curtain areas.

The department announced that, effective immediately, exporters will have to obtain government approval before they ship the affected goods anywhere in the world except to Canada.

Among the commodity groups specified were X-ray apparatus, metal-working machine tools and parts, mining equipment, generators, and other industrial materials.

Second In Series.

The department said the move was "the second in a series of actions designed to increase the effectiveness of security controls of strategic commodities."

It added that "this will permit pre-shipment screening to prevent shipment or trans-shipment to unauthorized destinations."

Officials said the effect of the action is to tighten control of the shipment of the Materials to Latin-America and the Orient.

In effect, communist China will not be able to buy the materials from the U. S. if this government decides against it. Moreover, the U. S. will have the final say if a Latin-American country buying the commodities indicates the goods are for trans-shipment to unauthorized areas.

Officials said that additional export control actions can be expected in the near future as a department continues its review of the control program.

Search For Nine British Fliers In Plane Crash

LONDON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—British naval and air search parties scoured the English channel near the Isle of Wight today for nine RAF fliers feared dead in the collision of two planes last night.

Lookouts on the eastward-bound Queen Mary spotted the crash off Nab Light, and the giant liner—with 1,000 passengers on deck—joined in a search for 20 minutes before continuing on to Southampton.

The air ministry said the planes, a Mosquito and a Lancaster, were engaged in night training when they collided.

Would Have State Pay $100 For Birth Of Babies In State

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—State subsidization of babies is recommended in legislation on file today at the State House.

A bill filed by Rep. Ralph W. Sullivan (D-Dorchester) would pay $100 to the father or mother of every child born in Massachusetts.

Sullivan said the average family needs assistance in meeting the present high cost of childbirth.

Hospital Auxiliary Gets Contributions

Hospital Auxiliary Receives Proceeds From Notre Dame-Navy Football Game Excursion

Members of the New Castle Hospital auxiliary met Thursday afternoon at the nurses' home with Mrs. Jennie Stenger presiding.

Committee reports were given by the various committees. An attractive collection of dolls and stuffed animals which were made by a group of ladies in the auxiliary, was displayed at the meeting. The toys are being made to be sold in the hospital gift shop. Sister Mary John, supervisor of the New Castle hospital, presented the auxiliary with a check for $1000, part of the proceeds from the hospital gift shop.

Mrs. Fae Pitzer presented the chairman of the spaghetti dinner committee, Rose Fazzone, with a check from the Women of the Moose as a contribution towards the supplies necessary for the spaghetti dinner to be held at the Cathedral.

Climax to the meeting was the presentation by Alfonso Scarazzo and Anthony Marino to the auxiliary a check for $1,000, proceeds from the Notre Dame-Navy football game excursion which the auxiliary sponsored.

These generous contributions will be used as payments on the $15,000 building fund pledge which was made last summer by the auxiliary.

At the close of the meeting a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Alma Fulton and her committee.

Hunting Accidents In State In Two Days Reach 87

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 4.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania Game Commission office in Pittsburgh today reported hunting accidents in all of the state's seven divisions the first two days of the hunting season reached 87.

One person died of gunshot wounds while there were 86 non-fatal accidents. Two more hunters were listed as heart attack victims bringing the total of mishaps and deaths to 89 in two days.

The commission office said yesterday's accident report will not be ready until later today, but it is expected the three-day total will be well over 120 accidents.

Last year, there were 23 fatalities and 418 non-fatal shootings during the 41-day hunting period.

G. C. Murphy Girls Have Costume Party

A group of girls from the G. C. Murphy company held a party Thursday evening at the home of Lena Long, 1111 Agnew street.

Games and dancing were the evening's pastimes. Costume prizes were won by Elizabeth Smith and Mary Delores Quinn. Highlight of the evening was a special dance presented by Dorothy Kerr and Adeline Delorenzo.

At a late hour, a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, with Lee Conti, Ruth Anderson, Anne Howe and Erma Theiss assisting. The home was decorated in the seasonal motif.

Blame Skunk For Traffic Mishap

LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 4.—(INS)—A skunk was blamed today by state police for causing a bus-automobile collision near Lancaster which resulted in minor injuries to two persons.

Forty people on the bus were shaken but unhurt when an automobile, driven by Donald Hendricks, 22, of Mountville smashed into the bus.

Thomas O'Connor, the bus driver, told police he had jammed his brakes to avoid hitting the animal yesterday and a car, operated by Donald Hendricks, 22, of Mountville, smashed into the rear of the bus.

Hendricks and his mother, Mrs. Elva Hendricks, 52, were treated at St. Joseph's hospital.

Ellwood GOP Rally Held In High Gym

Ellwood City Republicans held the final rally of their campaign Thursday night in the high school gymnasium. About 250 attended.

Burgess Clyde B. Houck opened the meeting and introduced the county GOP chairman, Roger W. Rowland, who presided at the meeting. County-wide and borough candidates were introduced and a number of short talks heard. Refreshments concluded the evening program.

NEW FEDERAL JUDGE

ERIE, Pa., Nov. 4.—(INS)—Owen M. Burns of Erie today assumed his duties as a federal judge for the western district of Pennsylvania.

Burns, who was appointed by President Truman Oct. 21 in a recess appointment, took the oath of office yesterday. His permanent appointment will be up for approval by the senate at the next session.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

He Doesn't Eat a Thing!

Parents who are worried about how much a child eats or sleeps are very likely to let their concern interfere with their judgment. Mrs. Brennan, for instance, went to her pediatrician and said, "I don't know what I am going to do. I'm sure that Arthur doesn't eat enough to keep him healthy." The doctor suggested that she actually weigh Arthur's food for a few days.

Though it was something of a job, Mrs. Brennan carried it through. When she made her report, her doctor showed her that in terms of actual weight, the Brennan youngster was getting quite enough food for a child of his age, weight and height.

The same method can be applied to other parts of the child's everyday activities. If Roland seems to spend all his time reading the comics, if Priscilla's naps appear to be over almost before they start, or if Marian gives the impression of always dropping things, a simple check on the facts may be the best first step in dealing with the problem. If the results show that there is reason for concern, then we can begin to try to get at causes and do something about them. As likely as not, however, such a check will show that our impressions are faulty. Worry has magnified the situation.

USE OF NAPKIN RING

Question: Is the use of napkin rings permissible?
Answer: Those who can afford to supply three clean napkins a day to each member of the family need not resort to this method of economy which is frowned on by the fastidious. But in many families where so much laundry would be either inconvenient or financially prohibitive, napkin rings are still used at family dinners.

ners. The ring should be removed before the napkin is placed on the table.

Question: Is it necessary for a woman to thank a man who gives her a seat in a street car?
Answer: "Thank you" is a small phrase with a large meaning. Do not be sparing in your use of it. Thank everyone for every little thing that is done for you. Thank the stranger who gives you directions on the street, and the man who gives you a seat in a street car. No matter what small courtesy is done for you, do not forget your "thank you" in return. It is always appreciated and it is usually expected.

Question: During a toast should the person toasted drink also?
Answer: No. Everyone else present stands and drinks to the person toasted, who remains seated and does not drink. It is then customary for him to rise and say a few words in acknowledgment or offer a return toast.

Question: At an informal tea at which the hostess is "pouring" who greets incoming guests when there is no servant?
Answer: A member of the family should attend to this duty. The hostess usually asks a friend to pour in her stead.

Record Crowd Will See New Castle-Aliquippa In Titanic Struggle

Schoolboy Grid Iron Straining At Leash, Playoff Bid Is Goal

Pennsylvania's top high school gridiron attraction for the weekend takes place tonight at Taggart Stadium. A near capacity crowd of some 15,000 is expected to be on hand for kickoff time at eight o'clock as New Castle and Aliquippa begin play to determine a top contender for the WPIAL playoff game at Pitt Stadium, November 26.

Seldom have local football fans had the opportunity to see such important football games in successive home appearances as the Har-Brack and now Aliquippa contests.

Both Unbeaten In Double A

The visiting Steelers are undefeated in WPIAL play and rank number one according to the point system. Their one loss in an eight game schedule was a 7 to 6 non-league decision to Windber.

New Castle has capitalized on breaks and sheer line power to vanquish eight opponents without a loss. The defending champions are rated as slight favorites to win tonight. However "spot" points range any place from New Castle and six in the Beaver Valley to Aliquippa and 20.

Wet Field Probable

The Red Hurricane staged its final game workout yesterday afternoon on a very wet Taggart stadium turf. The weatherman says cold, and rain or light snow for tonight.

A wet field would probably tend to keep the score down but both squads are heavy and have their attacks built around solid ground games. The dampness handicap should, therefore, apply equally to both teams.

Defense Stressed

Coach Bridenbaugh's Red and Black gridirers had a second defensive session against Aliquippa yesterday. The Jayvees were on the offense. A careful pattern, designed to stop smooth faking, slick passing quarterback Ralph Greco, and the running of Dom Stala, fullback, and head stepping halfback Rich Billingslea, was the objective of the drill.

Star defensive tackle Buck Tate missed the workout and his status in tonight's fray is undetermined. If needed, he will probably see limited action on defense. Bob King, Tate's beefy replacement on defense, also missed the drill be-

PITT-OHIO STATE GAME IS SELLOUT

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 4.—(INS)—The Ohio State Buckeyes will arrive in Pittsburgh today for their football game with the Pitt Panthers at Pitt Stadium tomorrow.

Coach Mike Milligan said that his Panther squad will go into "seclusion" meanwhile to skip pregame excitement on the Pitt campus.

Prestige Rides On Three Double A Games Tonight

By JOHN GOLIGHTLY (International News Service Sports Writer) PITTSBURGH, Nov. 4.—Results of three WPIAL class AA football games tonight could establish the basis for a gruesome nightmare.

All that's needed is for two underdogs to upset unbeaten and untied contenders and for a third to tie its opponent. Then Mt. Lebanon high school, which has completed its soft, well-chosen double A schedule, would become one of the most non-representative schools ever to win the WPIAL championship.

The Mounties currently are in fourth place with 114 points under the Gardner point system and don't stand a chance of doing it unless Jeannette, Johnstown and Aliquippa feel like collaborating tonight.

Union Winds Up Season's Practice

Team Set For Final Game Of Season Saturday With Brookfield, O.

Union high school is winding up its final practice sessions of the season today as it readies itself for a tough battle with undefeated Brookfield Saturday night at Brookfield.

Coach Jack Schantz reports that there will be no changes in the lineup that started against Mercer last week. That means that John Young and Ken McPheeters will start at the end positions, Carl Tomlinson and Pete Barber at tackles, John Winkler and Anthony Phillips at guards and Lynn Fowler at center.

In Good Shape

Ronnie Wolfbrandt will be calling the signals, Glen Hedrick will be at right half and Frank Presnar at left with Joe Hritz at full.

Both teams ought to be in good shape for this game, with Union slowly getting back after suffering injuries in early season games. Kenny Kendra and Ronnie May will be out of uniform, leaving the Scotties a little weak in reserve strength.

METHODIST TO DRILL

First Methodist basketball team will hold practice sessions next week. Jack French stated today that the exact time and location will be announced in Monday's edition.

Titans Seek Third Win In Row At Waynesburg

Mel Hetzler's Westminster college Titans will attempt to make it three wins in a row Saturday when they meet the Waynesburg college Jackets at Waynesburg.

Coach Hetzler will likely be without the services of first string guard and co-captain Victor Taylor who is out with the flu. Dick Sylvester, who is counted on heavily to fill the halfback slot, also is ill but may be able to see some service in the game. Fullback Dick Wharton and tackle Brady Mitchell, injured in Saturday's encounter with Geneva are expected to be ready for the Jackets tomorrow.

Titans Improved

The Jackets boast a more impressive record for the season although the Titans are regarded as vastly improved over their initial showing earlier in the season. The Jackets have won four, lost two, and tied one. One of their losses was by a 6-0 score to highly rated St. Vincent's which is one of two undefeated, unscored upon teams in the nation.

The Titans will attempt to erase some of the sting of last year's 20-0 drubbing handed them by the Jackets. In that game Westminster handed the Waynesburg eleven three touchdowns on fumbles.

Lutz At Quarter

If the all-time record of the two teams is any indication of the outcome of Saturday's game, the Titans are in for a rough day. The Titans have won only 3 of 16 games played with the Jackets. Quarterback Gaylord Lutz of

Ambridge Invades Ellwood Tonight

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 4.—Ellwood City's Wolverines wind up their 1949 football season tonight at Lincoln high field with one of the toughest teams on their card—Ambridge.

Ambridge was eliminated from class AA competition by two of its county rivals, Aliquippa 14-0 and Beaver Falls, 14-13, but has sailed through the rest of its schedule with flying colors.

May Toss Passes

Ellwood City dropped its opener to Erie Strong Vincent, 7-6, lost to Rochester, 13-0, Aliquippa 14-0, and has handed the rest of its opponents decisive setbacks, most notably a 19-6 victory over previously undefeated Vandergrift.

The Wolverines have been brushing up their passing attack all week and are expected to unfurl a great number against the slightly favored Beaver Valley visitors.

Bombers-Warriors To Meet Tonight

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Easy Ed Macauley will make his court debut in the Philadelphia Arena tonight when the St. Louis Bombers meet the Philadelphia Warriors in the Arena.

The six-foot-eight star, twice rated All-American for his play at St. Louis University, won the Helms Foundation award last year before signing up with the Bombers.

Macauley has never played on local courts. He led the Bombers to a 72-51 victory over the Tri-City Blackhaws Tuesday night in his pro debut.

Bessemer Edges Moon Twp., 19-6

Cementers Extended To Capture Sixth Win From Off-Beaten Visitors

Twice defeated Bessemer High football team hung up its sixth win of the 1949 campaign by downing Moon Township 19 to 6 last night at the victor's field.

A chilled and damp crowd of only 400 fans saw the visiting Tigers, beaten six times this season, threaten to upset the Cementers with forward passes and the surprising ineffectiveness of the Bessemer line.

Angelo Pezzuolo, Red and Black fullback, bucked over for TDs in the first quarter, and Mooney Schaville ran 39 yards off-tackle in the third period for a six-pointer. Moon scored in the second period on a two-yard plunge by Tom Spotsky.

Score: Early

Coach Bill Ciccone's eleven scored on a 52-yard march the first time it had possession in the game. Pezzuolo ran 11, 5, 10 and 4 yards on the drive. Schaville went all the way for a score on the occasion that was called back for an infraction. He later added runs of 5 and 19 yards. Pezzuolo scored standing up and Schaville's placement attempt was wide.

Moon drove 67 yards for its only score midway in the second stanza. A roughing the kicker penalty gave the visitors their first first down in the Bessemer 45. The running of Carl Trimmer and passing of Marion Richie sparkplugged the march. Tom Spotsky, substitute fullback, banged over from the two for the six points. Koepfinger's placement was wide.

Break Tie

Mooney Schaville put Bessemer into an early lead in the third period.

Joe Verlotte returned the kick-off 20 yards to the Moon 38. An offside penalty put the pigskin back on the 43. Pezzuolo made 4 at the line and then Schaville broke into the clear over his own right tackle, dodged and weaved his way through the secondary, cut back, and scored standing up. The pass play for the extra-point was incomplete.

Late in the third period, center Rus Cracraft recovered a Moon fumble on the visitors 30. Schaville advanced 4 as the quarter ended. Schaville and Pezzuolo combined to make a first down on the nine. Pezzuolo blasted straight through right guard to score standing up on the next play. Schaville booted the extra point from placement.

Playoff Due

Neither team could put on a march after the Bessemer TD. The winners had the ball on the Moon 13 as the game ended.

First downs favored Bessemer 11 to 8. Zelenople defeated Mars 14 to 6 and so a tie for first place in the Tri-County conference will have to be decided between Bessemer and Zelenople. The Bears are undefeated in Class B play and their chances of making a WPIAL playoff game will determine the date of the clash with Bessemer.

BASEBALL, while a sport, is yet Big Business, and owners of clubs in both the A. L. and N. L. are keen for experience and brains. Unlike employers in some other lines of endeavor they do not rid their rosters of men, because of age but because they have outlived their usefulness. Were Joe McCarthy and Casey Stengel, plus Bert Shotton, and possibly some others engaged in some other line of employment, they would have been shorn from the payroll long ago, because they are 62, Stengel, because he is 59, plus several months, and possibly Shotton who is possibly above the three score year mark. McCarthy's Red Sox bowed to Stengel's pennant-winning Yankees, and later Casey piloted the Yankees to a world's series title over Shotton's Dodgers.

Stymie, richest race horse in the world, may be through with the track for good. Now 8 years old, he is to be retired to a Lexington, Ky., farm to run and prance about a paddock, and munch hay, having won his owner $918,485. He was obtained for a mere $1,500, in a claiming race, which is the price Joe R. Rick paid for Volarian, trotter, who won 10 races this year. Brad Rowland, halfback for McMurray college of Abilene, Texas, is the country's top college grid scorer. He has earned 96 points in seven games clicking for 16 touchdowns. Doc Barnes of Youngstown, has submitted his resignation as president of the Ohio Association of Boxing commissioners. For several years Barnes ruled Youngstown boxing. Virginia May Give Penn Real Trouble

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Penn's football team will be up against a band of confusing Confederates tomorrow when it meets the University of Virginia at Franklin Field.

The southern Cavaliers spring from a variety of defenses, instead of using orthodox patterns. In previous games this season, the Virginians have started play with a five or six man line and ended up with an eight man line by the time the ball was snapped.

The Cavaliers rank fifth in the nation in rushing defense, tenth on punt returns, and nine on kickoff returns. Penn outranks them, however, on interception returns. The Quakers spent most of yesterday working out ways to stop the Cavalier defensive plays and John Papit, Virginia's flashy running back.

MR. ROWLAND, THE PUBLIC RECORDS STILL SPEAK

In Wednesday's ad you, Mr. Rowland, proudly present YOUR candidate for District Attorney and rely on the records of that office for eight years and state it is the subject of favorable comment throughout the state. Outside of your bold statement stating it is good, there is no other evidence to substantiate it. In fact the records taken from the public records showing actual cases tried for eight years, a record which is unimpeachable, indicates that the record of this office is not good. The record shows that the ability to try cases is wholly lacking and is not there.

The public record which is taken from the Clerk's docket of the Quarter Sessions Court on file in the Court House shows that in the last five years—twenty terms of criminal court—this office whose record he is relying on has only won 23 cases and 9 partial wins and this is for two lawyers—District Attorney and Assistant District Attorney. This is the unimpeachable record which you state that the people of the State of Pennsylvania talk about. They should talk.

FOR THE GOOD OF LAWRENCE COUNTY, THIS ONE-MAN DOMINATED MACHINE MUST BE DEFEATED.

New Haven Wins Hockey Battle

(By International News Service)
The New Haven Ramblers climbed into the runnerup spot in the American Hockey League's eastern division today and also enabled the western sector's idle Cleveland Barons to hold on to their one and a half game lead.

Goalie Emile "The Cat" Francis turned in some great defensive work last night to give New Haven a 1-0 win over the Indianapolis Caps, who occupy second place in the west.

No Games Tonight
The Barons seeking their fourth straight victory and their ninth win in 11 contests, will meet the hard-hitting Caps tomorrow night when Indianapolis makes its first appearance of the season in Cleveland.

Buffalo, leader in the eastern sector by one game, will travel to Springfield, New Haven will visit Pittsburgh and Providence will meet Hershey in other games to be played tomorrow night. There are no games scheduled tonight.

The Notre Dame-Michigan State grid date Nov. 5 at East Lansing will be something of a homecoming for Irish coach Frank Leahy. Leahy was an assistant grid coach at Michigan State under "Sleepy" Jim Crowley back in 1932.

Army And Irish Should Not Have Trouble Saturday

Army Picked To Defeat Fordham, Notre Dame Over Mich. State

By CHARLES EINHORN
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The ASPCA—American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Army—should be meeting about this time. Also, the ASPCND (Notre Dame). Behind a solid week of ballyhooing for a couple of real good middle-class ball clubs, Fordham and Michigan State, it's beginning to be wondered if Army and Notre Dame have a chance Saturday.

Army-Irish Favored
But Army is heavily favored over Fordham (though no explicit line has been issued on this game), and Notre Dame is a three-touchdown favorite over Michigan State in two of the leading football games of this weekend. Therefore, just to be gauche, we pick Notre Dame to whale the daylight out of Michigan State and Army to cream Fordham.

Texas to end Baylor's undefeated advance. This one is a doozy. The Longhorns are favored, at the moment, by all of half a point.

Wisconsin to upset Northwestern, a six-point favorite. Ivy Williamson, in his first year at Wisconsin, has proved he can do championship things when his Badgers are right. Northwestern seems a bit rocky following successive losses to Iowa and Ohio State.

Gophers Favored
Most tempting over-all seems to be the Minnesota-Iowa game, with the Gophers favored by 10 points. Iowa would be a sleeper pick under those conditions.

In consensus, Dartmouth is picked over Columbia, Penn over Virginia, Princeton over Harvard, Ohio State over Pitt, Brown over Yale, Penn State over West Virginia, Illinois over Indiana, Michigan over Purdue, Missouri over Colorado and Kansas over Nebraska.

Tulane is a heavy favorite to beat Navy in their game at New Orleans. Duke is the choice over Wake Forest, Georgia over Florida, LSU over Vanderbilt, Tennessee over Georgia Tech, Rice over Arkansas, Oregon over Washington and California over Washington State.

Daily double: Army and Notre Dame.

There are about 800 fires in hospitals and institutions each year in the U. S.

Iowa Seeking Rose Bowl Bid

By ABE BARRON
(International News Service Sports Writer)

IOWA CITY, Ia., Nov. 4.—It's been 10 long years since Iowa's Hawkeyes, currently tied for first place in Big Ten standings, have emerged from the deep blue shadows as likely conference champions.

In addition, the Hawks today are getting whiffs of the heady aroma of roses floating in from the Pasadena New York's Day classic.

With a 3-1 conference record, all Iowa has to do is beat Minnesota and Wisconsin to be among the eligibles for the westward trip.

Minnesota Hurdle

But starting tomorrow, there is a strong possibility that any Iowa mattress waiting to be stuffed with roses may become uncomfortable—with thorns.

For the sophomore-dominated Hawkeyes play Minnesota at Minneapolis—a city in which victory has eluded Iowa since 1921 despite 11 visits.

Not since Iowa's gallant "Iron Men" of 199—led by the late Nile Kinnick—has there been so much pressure worked up over Dr. Eddie Anderson's teams.

Various state commissions have visited the Pennsylvania turkey farm, and are copying this state's method of raising the bird.
